

Nine Inch Nails - Sin Lyrics | SongMeanings

You give me the reason, you give me control I gave you my purity, my purity you stole Did you think I wouldn't recognize this compromise? Am I just too stupid to realize? Stale incense, old sweat And lies, lies, lies

It comes down to this Your kiss, your fist And your strain, it gets under my skin Within, take in The extent of my sin

You give me the anger, you give me the nerve Carry out my sentence, well I get what I deserve I'm just an effigy to be disgraced, to be defaced Your need for me has been replaced And if I can't have everything Well, then just give me a taste

It comes down to this Your kiss, your fist And your strain it gets under my skin Within, take in The extent of my sin

You give me the reason, you give me control I gave you my purity and my purity you stole Did you think I wouldn't recognize this compromise? Am I just too stupid to realize? Stale incense, old sweat And lies, lies, lies

It comes down to this Your kiss, your fist And your strain, it gets under my skin Within, take in Well, my sin, it comes down to this Your kiss, your fist And your strain, it gets under my skin Within, take in The extent of my sin

About Sin

"Sin" is the third single by American artist Nine Inch Nails from the album Pretty Hate Machine. Released in October 1990, the song peaked at number 35 in the UK Singles Chart. "Sin" has been commonly a staple of Nine Inch Nails live performances for many years; setlist.fm lists it as the band's ninth most played live song. Its versions on the single differentiate heavily from the album cut, with more an EBM sound with distorted vocals and alternate instrumentation that became the foundation for its many live renditions, as opposed to the synth-pop style featured on Pretty Hate Machine.
