“I’ve Felt Worse” - TheLoudlyHappy

Jasper, the school bully, confronts Amethyst at their table during lunch. Before Anyone could react, She throws a punch. Almost Anyone. Lapis jumps in the way and gets hit in the jaw. Everyone gasps. Lapis spits the blood from her mouth onto her hand and wipes it on her jeans. She raises her head to look Jasper in the eyes.

“I’ve Felt Worse.”

Suddenly, Jasper is on the ground. Lapis just punched the biggest bully in the school unconscious. This moment is one she would never forget. The first time she fought her worst fears to protect those she loves.

---

The School’s football game just ended and everyone is leaving. While leaving Lapis is pulled from the crowd, and her friends, to the back of the bleachers.

There waiting is “The Diamonds”. Some of the Bases in Cheerleading Squad they call “Home World”. They were Bases because of their strength. Lapis knew what they were doing already. Now she just has to get through this and she’ll be fine. Not too hard.

No words were spoken. With no words, she was thrown on the ground and they began to attack her. She simply curls into a ball until its over. No point trying to fight. Physically, they were superior. Mentally is where she would win.

When they finally stopped, they laughed and began walking away. Lapis took a few seconds then got up. She looks at the Cheerleaders and School Bully with a blank look. She looks to her left and sees a lonely bag of golf clubs.

“Hey!”

The girls turn around, get hit in the face one by one, and hold their faces about to shed tears. They weren’t Prepared to get hit so they gave Lapis enough time to say her, now famous, line (with a little change just for them) and walk off slowly.

“I’ve Felt Worse, cowards”

About & Verses

ABOUT

I don't particular write everything that there is to know on a character so have the link to her Wiki to go around this page and get familiar with this blue Gem

http://steven-universe.wikia.com/wiki/Lapis\_Lazuli

Her portrayal will be fulfilled to the best of my ability so don't come around the mun to complain, show hate or advices on how to do her. As said in rules, i am here to have fun, not feel weighed down by whatever is said towards Lapis or the mun

VERSES

I am fine in playing outside of the main verse, just message me. Otherwise, Current verse is my main/default

Verse: Current

Set around the season 3 events and what is to happen further in the episodes with Lapis. So she reside in the Barn, pretty much stuck on Earth, wanting to explore this world and has to reside in this place with Peridot. In which, she still doesn't trust the green Gem from what occurred in past.

Verse: Prisoner on Earth

More or less the verse that settles around below the Season 3 situations, where she is stuck on this planet, lonely, lost. etc.

Verse: On Homeworld

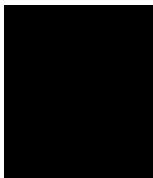

In this verse, Lapis lives on Homeworld, allied with the court of Blue Diamond as an informant & explorer about Earth. This is set before the war, the mirror trap, meeting those on the planet Earth. Basically she doesn't know Steven or anybody that fled Homeworld. The only ones she knows are Peridot and Jasper but nothing about what occurred in the SU seasons happened to her with these two. In other words, they are just occasionally together for needed missions or hang out, not as friends or anything though.

Note: I may be fine with this verse of Lapis, about letting her slowly meet the Crystal gems on the time of the war or eventually come across Steven. But my focus is lean towards Homeworld gems.

RWBY VERSE: (reserved to Rwb rpers or those with a verse of said series)

This verse is splitted in three parts, the pre-timeskip, Lapis adventures in Beacon and post-timeskip of the academy's fall, My default verse is the Beacon timeline, so ask me if you want to roleplay in the other story parts

Lapis Rwb Faceclaim: Yolko/Yoruko from SAO

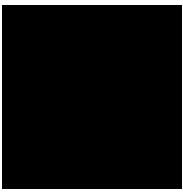

Pre-timeskip - Orphan, like many others and brought into an unknown village where an evil organization, known as the Diamonds Authority, little is known about these four or their intentions. Lapis lives there, trapped from seeing the true world outside the installed, secure limits in the woods around this small town of kids. She is about 17 years old at that time, being raised and trained in this place, not knowing anything about what Yellow, Blue, White and Pink are up to in the shadows. Her live there, is pretty normal and she shares her home with another girl in the name of Peridot. However, even if happy to be in this village, deep down, Lapis Lazuli wants to leave, explore the world but she is completely conflicted on leaving the friends she has there.

In Beacon - Having chosen to run away with some others and the unlikely help of someone in the name of Steven after finding out the cruel plans of the Diamonds sisters. Now, Lapis is safely attending the school of Beacon, trying to learn there and what lies in Vale. As for her team, its JASP, composing of Jasper, Agate, Lapis, (i used the S letter instead) and then Peridot. While there, she tries her best to fit in, obtain friends, socilaize and such other things done in the life of an Huntress.

Post-timeskip - Following the events of Rwb Vol4 and the fall of Beacon, Lazuli is now seperated from everyone she has met. Although, she continues to explore the world, the hope of finding her teammates and friends is a goal to be accomplished.

POKEMON VERSE: (Reserved for those with a PKM rp blog or a verse of the XYZ & Sun and Moon anime)

Faceclaim: Yolko/Yoruko (same FC as above basically)

Depending on the opposing character she interacts with, she got two histories, one for the XYZ universe and another one for S&M anime.

S&M verse: (tagged as Alolan Songstress)

Raised all the way till she gained 17 years old, Lapis is born on Poni island, one of the isles found across the Alola region. During her youth, she had begun to show talent, not only in Pokemon battles but also as a songstress and dancer. Eventually becoming one of the few that can rely on the Z-power moves, the blue haired teenager started to get less into using her pokemon companions for fighting along the years, saying clearly that she spent too much time in this. Albeit, she prefers relying on them in times of choreographies and so, they'd get to participate in her shows as a singer & dancer within the sunny region. Even if she comes from Poni isle, visiting the other places in Alola, isn't an issue to Lapis.

Pokemon Team -

Vaporeon

Ribombee

Alakazam

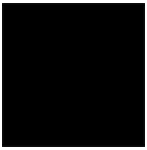

Tauros

Honchkrow

Mimikyu

MODERN VERSE

Faceclaim: Kat Graham/Bonnie Bennett

This is only Lapis modern verse. Any kinds of humans related AUs can happen there, like Historical AUs & whatnot.
