It is convenient for busy people and large businesses to outsource their laundry with outsourcing companies like Liox Laundry. #### Laundry Service

Liox Laundry Service, which includes Wash & Fold and Hang Dry services, is our crown jewel, the most perfectly rounded master piece. With over a decade of experience of doing washing, drying, folding and packing. We pride ourselves with the fact that we never outsourced laundry to other companies. Liox Washing Personnel, each has mastered a separate part of washing process. Like a Sushi Master Jiro focuses on a decade long process of learning how to make rice.

Our employees focus on just sorting clothes and loading them into the washer, adding a perfect amount of detergent and softener, or bleach for over 10 years, Nothing else. Another team is focused on just loading clothes in the dryer and setting the proper temperature, drying time and putting away clothes that can't be dried, not more not less... Our folding professionals, each is nothing less of an artist, the amount of learning it takes to perfectly fold each piece in the identical shape, each time, thousands of times a day.

What people say about Liox

An actual customers written reviews. You can find them on Yelp and Google.

“Wonderful service! Fresh laundry - smells great! They do it just like mom used to. Got all my gross stains out with grace and decency. Fairly priced with discounts every now and then. I will be coming back here for years to come.”

Aaron W, New York City

"I've used so many cleaners in the LES area, and this place is by far the best. I'm really pedantic about making sure my clothes are really clean, especially my work out clothes, and I've been super impressed so far with these cleaners. You can choose your own detergent and softener (bonus if you're sensitive to certain liquids) and the staff are super nice..."

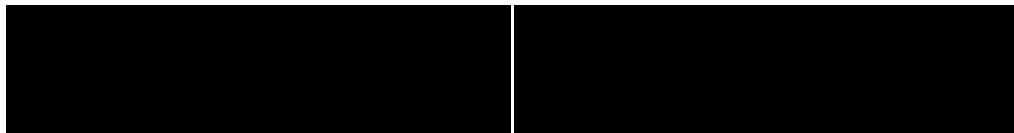

Emmy M, Manhattan

"Liox has been the best wash and dry cleaning service I have ever found! Years ago I went with a new shirt to a dry cleaner in this neighborhood. The shirt came back with a hole in it and a red stain around the hole. The owner refused to take responsibility, and left me with a brand new, not inexpensive shirt, ruined. Then I found Liox..."

Jack R, New York City

Liox Cleaning Lab

July 08, 2017

Following previous article, in light of all unfairness in today's laundry market we decided it's time for a change, cut all the crap and do something about it. That's how Liox Laundry Bin was born. Let's cut the middle man and go straight to the consumer, and be completely clear and upfront about what you pay for and what you get. Pay 40 cents per lb and you can have the cheapest laundry ever, but you will receive it unfolded.

Uber for laundry?

We all know Uber, and what makes it special and different from other car services or businesses. It is a freelance drivers- user-controlled mobile app/taxi service. Let's step away from laundry for a second. Why is it user-controlled? Because we are the ones who decide which driver to hire, we decide their fate by rating their driver profiles, we can make it look good or bad. It's a service enabling anyone to be a driver with a proper car and proper license.
