1. YtMP3 Video Converter - Our Choice

- Good conversion speed
- No ads
- Suitable for all devices
- Toolbar-free

- None

Verdict: YtMP3 is a simple free YouTube to MP3 converter that allows transforming YouTube videos into one of the two formats: MP3 or MP4. The service is available for all devices and all you need to access it is a browser that supports Flash.

Other than conversion, the app has an option for editing file names. You can rename the file before saving it. The converter doesn't allow you to change the quality settings, but thanks to the built-in code, you always receive high-quality audio as a result. I've managed to convert a 30-minute video into an audio file in 27 seconds.

2. Y2mate

- Over 15 available formats
- Supports Dropbox and Google Drive
- Fast conversion
- Doesn't require registration

- Doesn't work with other platforms
- Poor performance on Android

Verdict: With the help of Y2mate, you can convert YouTube videos to audio or another popular video format. This online service supports such formats as M4A, MP3, WAV, AVI, MP4, MPG, and several others.

You can copy the link to a video or find the needed clip by typing in the relevant keywords. After you've added the link, you can also choose the format and the quality of the file. The converted audio can be uploaded to DropBox or Google Drive. I tested this free YouTube converter on a 30-minute video and received the result in 24 seconds.

3. YouTube to MP3 Converter

- Unlimited number of conversions
- Audio quality parameters
- Can be integrated with cloud storages
- Basic editing tools

- No batch conversion
- Only standard formats

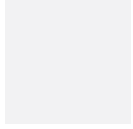

Verdict: YouTube to MP3 Converter allows you to choose between 3 audio and 5 video formats. Additionally, a user can determine the quality of the track: 128, 256, or 320Kb. This online YouTube to MP3 app can be used on any device, and the conversion result can be saved on DropBox or OneDrive Cloud.

You can convert videos from over 20 popular platforms: YouTube, Facebook, TikTok, Dailymotion, Instagram, Vimeo, and many others. Furthermore, there are no limits to how many conversions you can make. The additional functions offered in this converter include a cropping tool, metadata, and MP3 cover creation. The video to audio conversion time, in the highest quality, is 1 minute 10 seconds.

4. WinX Video Converter

370+ codecs & 420+ presets

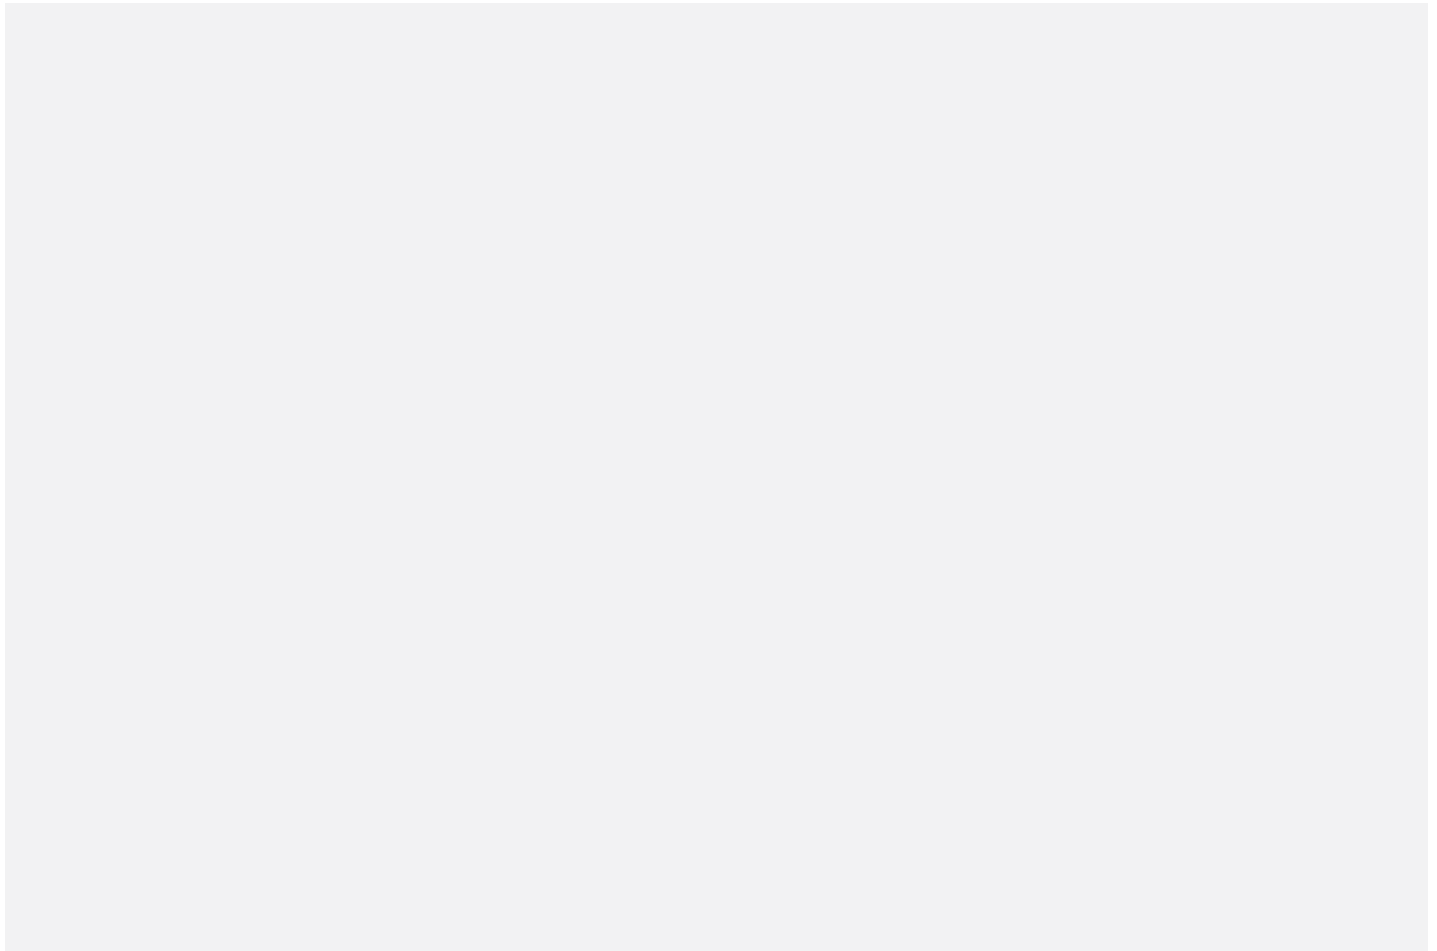

- Supports YouTube and 1K+ platforms
- Batch conversion
- Maintains original quality
- Basic editing tools

- A free version is limited

WinX Video Converter

Verdict: WinX Video Converter is perfectly suitable for downloading 4K/1080p and AV1 video files from YouTube and other platforms without wasting much time. You can convert a YouTube clip into MP3 format with one click. This service support batch downloading, which allows you to speed up your workflow.

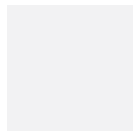

The converter supports more than 270 codecs and 430 presets. Thanks to GPU acceleration, you won't need to wait for long until your file gets uploaded and converted. You can use it to convert your file without quality loss. Besides, it has tools for cutting, trimming, merging and cropping your video files.

5. 2conv

- Simple interface
- Works with over 20 streaming platforms
- Can share files over email
- Multilingual app

- Slow performance
- Ads

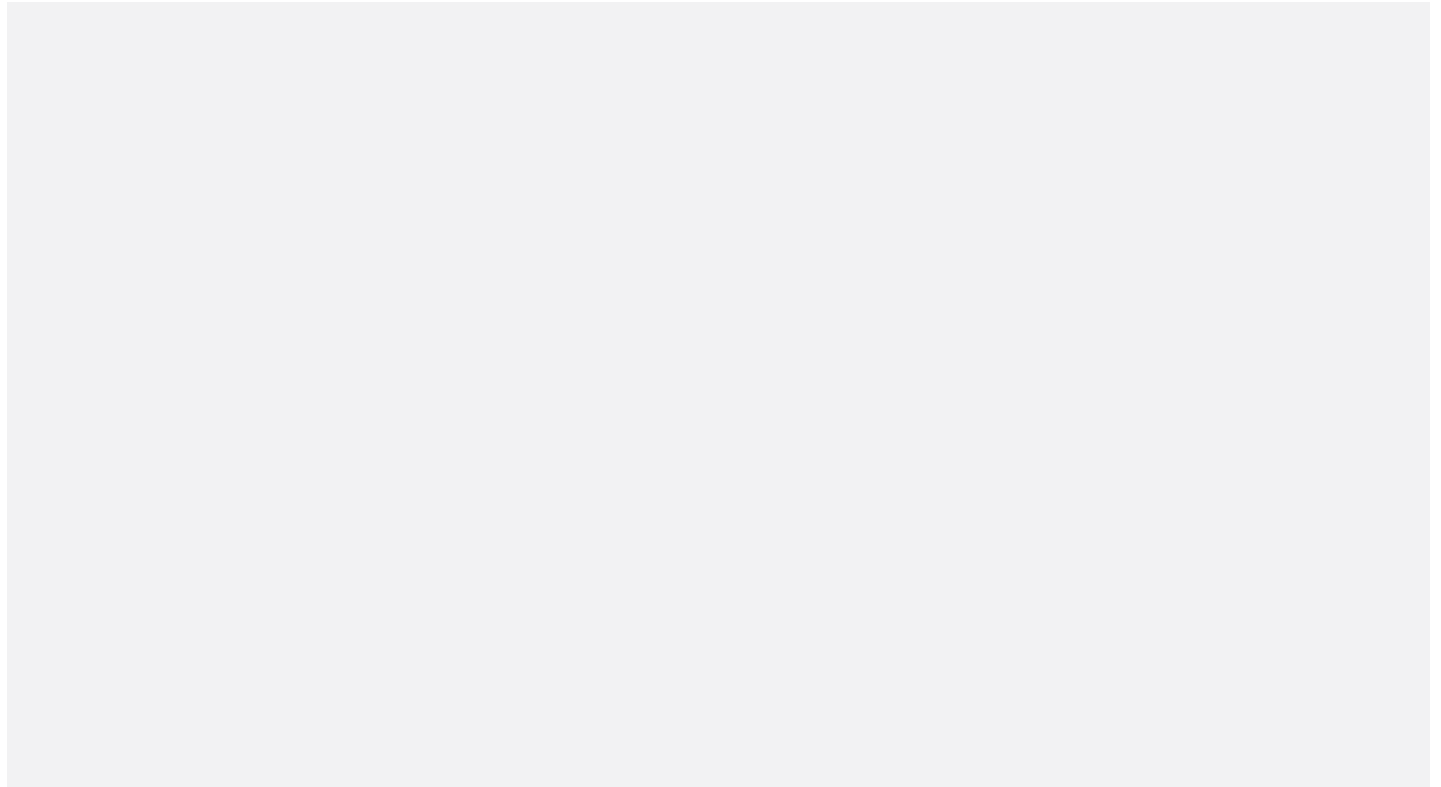

2conv

Verdict: 2conv.com supports 5 file formats: MP3, MP4, AVI, as well as HD resolution, if you need to download a video from YouTube. However, the service isn't limited to just YouTube, as you can also download the content you like from TikTok, Instagram, and 20 other streaming platforms.

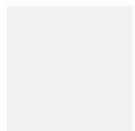

Other than downloading files to your device, you can also send them over email or upload them to Dropbox. The free YouTube to MP3 converter is available in several languages and you don't need to register to download the result. By the way, there's also a desktop version of 2conv.com. The conversion of a 30-minute video took 1min 25sec.

6. MP3Studio

Background batch download of video and audio

- Batch download mode
- Rich format support
- Instant downloading
- Cross-platform app

- Mobile app isn't really convenient

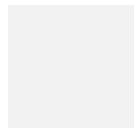

MP3Studio

Verdict: MP3Studio is an intuitive and fast multimedia converter for PC, thanks to which you can watch YouTube videos, download them instantly and convert them to popular file formats such as MP3, AVI, MP4, MOV, VMV, FLV, WMA and others.

I like that the program can download and convert video/audio files in batch, working in the background mode, without any delay. I also found out that the application is cross-platform, and can be used by Mac, Windows and Android users.

7. NotMP3

- Comes without additional bundled software
- Excellent audio format selection
- User-friendly
- Compatible with video sites

- There are ads

NotMP3

Verdict: NotMP3 is a great tool to save your favorite YouTube tracks to your PC in a legal way. It allows you to create your music collections quickly and easily. The main advantage of this program is its stream-recording feature.

With NotMP3, you can convert any number of media files absolutely for free. It doesn't matter if you use the software for the first time or it is your 100th video download. You won't spend a cent.

Thanks to NotMP3 you can convert your favorite playlists into the format you want and save them to your device. NotMP3 boasts an excellent privacy policy. You don't need to provide any personal information to use the program. It also allows downloading age-restricted tracks.

8. Converto

- Has tools for cutting videos
- Can adjust the file quality
- Automatic cover creation
- No ads

- Suitable only for personal use
- Only for converting videos that are available for free access

Converto

Verdict: The Converto web-converter allows downloading videos from YouTube in MP3 or MP4 formats. You can choose the format and quality, as well as edit the file name and tags before the download. The converter also has tools for editing videos that allow you to cut out specific parts of the clip.

One of the reasons this option can be called the best online video downloader is its ability to automatically add a cover to all MP3 files. As for the conversion speed, the processing of a 30-minute video took about 1.5 minutes.

9. 320YouTube

- Intuitive UI
- Quick conversion
- Automatic video and tag naming
- Good quality

- Takes a while to download the files
- Only 1 supported format

320YouTube

Verdict: 320YouTube is another free YouTube music converter. By converting video into audio, you receive sound with a bitrate of 320kbit/s and a frequency of 48 kHz. The service only works with MP3 files.

This online converter automatically generates names and tags for converted files, based on the information retrieved from YouTube. I was pleasantly surprised by the conversion speed – about 10 seconds, while the download process took a lot of time – 1.5 minutes.

10. Any Video Converter Free

- Video editing tools
- Supports over 100 websites
- Compatible with a large number of devices and formats
- Can save audio on disks

- Free version doesn't have DVD templates
