

Vedic Baby Names and Meaning for Boys and Girls

Home >> Vedic Baby Names

Vedic Boy Names

Top 100 Vedic Boy Names

Top 100 Vedic Girl Names

Vedic Girl Names

Top 100 Vedic Baby Names

The Vedas are a large body of texts originating in ancient India. Composed in Vedic Sanskrit, the texts constitute the oldest layer of Sanskrit literature and the oldest scriptures of Hinduism. Hindus consider the Vedas to be apauruseya, which means "not of a man, superhuman" and "impersonal, authorless".

BabyNamesCube.com is a unique collection of vedic names. Browse Vedic baby girl and boy names with meaning, popularity graph and numerology.

A

B

C

D

E

F

G

H

I

J

K

L

M

N

O

P

Q

R

S

T

U

V

W

X

Y

Z

Name Numerology

Abhyavartin♂

4

Abivardha♂

3

Adbudha♂

5

Adhrigu♂

5

Adhvaryu♂

1

Aditi♀

7

Aditya♂

6

Advaryu♂

11

Agamarsha♂

6

Agastya♂

2

Aghasva♂

5

Agrayi♀

3

Agrayo dhishnyah♂

7

Agni♂

22

Agni chouchika♂

3

Agni tapasa♂

9

Agnirupa♂

6

Agnivesi♂

5

Agniyuta♂

8

Ahi♂

9

Ahi♀

9

Ahirbudhniya♂

3

Ahisuva♂

9

Ahnayavayya♂

7

Aja ekapad♂

6

Ajah♂

11

Ajamilha♂

1

Ajas♂

4

Ajikarta♂

8

Akhandala♂

8

Akrishtamasha♂

3

Akru♀

6

Akshamujavan♂

5

Akayya♂

2

Alinas♂

2

Amahiyu♂

6

Ambarisha♂

1

Ambiruna♂

7

Amhomuka♂

11

Amruth♂

9

Amruth♀

9

Amsa♂

7

Amsu♂

9

Amsurati♀

7

Ananata♂

7

Anarsani♂

5

Anava♂

3

Andhigu♂

1

Anga♂

5

Angiras♂

6

Anhasa♂

8

Anika♂

1

Anitabha♀

11

Anjasi♀

9

Antaka♂

3

Antikusiyavasuva♂

9

Anu♂

9

Anumathi♀

6

Anyatri♂

7

Apala♀

5

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

Next >>

Vedic Names for Baby Boy, Pick Boy Names

Considered to be among the world's most ancient religious texts, the Vedas are one of the most sacred scriptures of the Hindu religion. Hindus believe that God directed the texts to scholars who passed them on to the next generations through word of mouth. Hence, Vedic texts are sometimes called shruti (hearing) or smriti (consciousness) that help us realize the true self. This treasure vault of wisdom and knowledge can thus be the proper inventory to draw inspiration from for a Vaidik name for boys.

Are you want to pick Vedic Names for Baby Boy? Then you have to go better place. Naming for your little boy is not an easy task. Nowadays many of the people wants to choose traditional names. If your choice is to choose Vedic Names for your Boy Baby then pickthenames.com is the best place. Below list has best Vedic baby boy names with their meanings is sure to help you decide on the right one for your little prince.

Hindu Vedic Names for Baby Boy

- Aarav – Derived from a Sanskrit root word Rav related to 'peace' associated with the concept of wisdom, Aarav means 'peaceful and calm.'
- Aditya – Derived from Sanskrit, Aditya means 'the Sun god' or 'belonging to Aditi' referring to the offspring of the mother goddess Aditi 'the boundless one.'
- Abhimanyu – With a meaning of 'heroic,' this Sanskrit origin name belongs to the son of Arjun, the great warrior from the Mahabharata.
- Agastya/Agasthya – This Sanskrit name belonged to a great sage and is also one of many names of Lord Shiva. It means 'The star of Canopus,' which is the 'cleanser of waters.'
- Balaram – Brother of Krishna and also considered an incarnation of Seshanag or Serpent Sesa. An active participant in Krishna's adventures, including the killing of Kansha.
- Balabhadra – Elder brother of Jagannath – this is also another name of Balarama. As the eldest, Balarama rides ahead of Jagannath's chariot in the famous Rath Yatra or Car Festival of Puri.
- Bhaama/Bheema/Bhim – One among the five Pandava brothers and the strongest, Bheema means 'terrible, formidable' in Sanskrit. Also known for his culinary skills and love for food.
- Chandra – The name refers to the Moon god. It means 'bright, shining or glittering.'
- Chaturbhuj – This name, representing 'someone with four arms' or 'strong' in Sanskrit, is another name for Vishnu.
- Chaitya – It refers to a shrine, sanctuary, temple, prayer hall, or a sacred monument. "Chaitya" comes from the root of caita or ci, meaning "heaped-up."
- Dhruv – It means 'steadfast' or 'unshakeable.' Considered a devotee of Vishnu; it refers to the pole star.
- Daksh – The word means 'highly skilled.' It also refers to Sati's father, who was killed and then revived by Shiva.
- Deva – Deva or Dev means a god or a divine being.
- Debabrata – Deabrata is Bhisma's name before he vowed celibacy. It means 'one who accepts penance.'
- Dhananjaya – Arjun was called Dhananjaya, which means 'fire' in Sanskrit.
- Durlabha – It means 'rare,' or 'elusive.'
- Eshwara – Primarily an epithet of Lord Shiva, Eshwara or Ishwara means supreme soul, ruler, lord, king, queen, or husband.
- Ganapati – Joining the Sanskrit compound Gana and Pati, this name refers to 'the lord of the people' or the widely worshipped deity Lord Ganesha.
- Gautam – Gautam is the other name of Lord Buddha, having roots in Sanskrit.
- Hariprasad – Hariprasad refers to the one who is blessed by Lord Krishna.
- Harikesh – Harikesh was a disciple of Mahavira.
- Ikshvaku – It refers to the First King of The Surya dynasty.
- Ilusha – Ilusha was the father of Kavasha Aitusha, a prominent Maharshi in the Rig Veda.
- Indra – Lord Indra was the king of swarga (heaven) and the devas residing in swarga.
- Jatin – The ancient Sanskrit name means 'disciplined,' 'someone with a matted lock.'
- Jiva – This unique Sanskrit origin name means 'healthy, alive or living.'
- Janak – Janak means pioneer, or 'father of Sita' from Ramayana.
- Karun – This traditional Sanskrit word means 'compassion,' 'mercy,' 'tenderness' and 'gentleness'. The name also refers to 'Supreme Being.'
- Kashyap – The name is of Sanskrit origin, meaning 'divine beings,' 'famous sage,' and 'wise.'
- Laksh – Laksh means 'goal,' 'aim' or 'target.'
- Manuh – The name refers to Lord Vishnu, who is mentioned in the Vedic Mantras or hymns. It also means 'the ruler of the earth.'
- Manuj – Manuj means 'the son of Manu.'
- Nahush – This ancient word of Sanskrit origin means 'neighbor or kindred' or 'fellow man.' It is another name given to Lord Krishna and Lord Vishnu as a reference to the elusive powers or maya to confound every being.
- Nilkanth -Nilakanth is the name of Lord Shiva, which refers to the blue throat of Shiva as he had consumed the poison to save the world. Nila means 'blue,' and Kanth means 'throat.'
- Om – Om is the preeminent Sanskrit mantra and symbol of Hinduism. This Sanskrit word means 'gift of God'.
- Parth – Parth name means 'one who never misses the target,' or 'king.'
- Pavan – Pavan refers to 'the god of wind.' This Sanskrit word is used to refer to Lord Hanuman.
- Parixit/Parikshit – Parixit means 'Tested One' or 'Proven' or the son of Abhimanyu from epic Mahabharata.
- Rakshit – The ancient Sanskrit word means 'saved and protected.'
- Rudra – The name Rudra comes from ru, meaning 'Roar or howl.' It is a personification of terror. When Shiva begged for a name from his father, he was granted Rudra or 'howler' due to his tremendous powers as the storm god.
- Shantnu/Shantanu – Shantnu was the father of Bheeshma and a King from the epic Mahabharata. The name means 'wholesome' in Sanskrit.
- Sanu – The Sanskrit origin name means 'surface or top of a mountain.' The name also refers to ridge and tableland.
- Saraswata/Saraswat – Saraswata refers to the 'husband of Saraswati.' Saraswati was the holy river mentioned in the Rig Veda.
- Trayit – This unconventional choice of name is mentioned in the Mantra, Om Trayitnave Namah, in which we recall Lord Ganesha or Shiva. All the three Vedas taken together are called Trayit.
- Tirth – Tirth means a 'holy place' or 'place of pilgrimage.'
- Vishwanath – Vishwanath is an epithet of the god Shiva. Originating from Sanskrit origin, it means 'Lord of the universe.'
- Vyas – This ancient name is of Sanskrit origin, means 'wise sage' or 'preacher.'
- Vaman – This name means 'short dwarf' in Sanskrit. The name is given to the fifth avatar of Lord Vishnu when he takes birth as a dwarf Brahmin as per the Puranas.
- Vedant – Vedant means 'ultimate wisdom' or 'one who is blessed with Vedic knowledge.'
- Yagyesh – Yagyesh is the 'God of holy or sacrificial fire.'

100 Traditional Spiritual Vedic Names For Baby Boy With Meaning [2021]

hindu mythological names for baby boy

India is enriched with culture, traditional names, Vedic mythology, spirituality and philosophy. Indian literature also contains many religious books having traditional names. India is the origin of Hinduism. So, Hindu mythological names for baby boy are abundantly available. Following list contains spiritual Indian names of Vedic boy names,

Spiritual Vedic names Meaning of Indian mythological names
 Arjun ■■■■■ Abhisyaanta Splendid, Son of Kuru ■■■■■ Adidev God of Gods ■■■■■ Adishankar Sri Shankaracharya ■■■■■ Aditey Son of Aditi ■■■■■ Agastee Name of a sage ■■■■■ Agasthya A name of a sage ■■■■■ Agney Son of the Fire ■■■■■ Agniras One of the Saptarshi ■■■■■ Aksha Chariot having many Horses ■■■■■ Angad Son of Bali in Ramayana, Ornamnt ■■■■■ Arjuna One of the Pandava Prince (Mahabharat) ■■■■■ Balabhadra Another name of balarama ■■■■■ Bakaram Brother of Krishna ■■■■■ Ballej With Glorious

1. Aarav

Derived from a Sanskrit root word Rav related to 'peace' associated with the concept of wisdom, Aarav means 'peaceful and calm.'

2. Aditya

Derived from Sanskrit, Aditya means 'the Sun god' or 'belonging to Aditi' referring to the offspring of the mother goddess Aditi 'the boundless one.'

3. Abhimanyu

With a meaning of 'heroic,' this Sanskrit origin name belongs to the son of Arjun, the great warrior from the Mahabharata.

4. Agastya/Agashtya

This Sanskrit name belonged to a great sage and is also one of many names of Lord Shiva. It means 'The star of Canopus,' which is the 'cleanser of waters.'

5. Balaram

Brother of Krishna and also considered an incarnation of Seshanag or Serpent Sesha. An active participant in Krishna's adventures, including the killing of Kansha.

6. Balabhadra

Elder brother of Jagannath – this is also another name of Balarama. As the eldest, Balarama rides ahead of Jagannath's chariot in the famous Rath Yatra or Car Festival of Puri.

7. BhĀma/Bheema/Bhim

One among the five Pandava brothers and the strongest, Bheema means "terrible, formidable" in Sanskrit. Also known for his culinary skills and love for food.

8. Chandra

The name refers to the Moon god. It means "bright, shining or glittering."

9. Chaturbhujā

This name, representing 'someone with four arms' or 'strong' in Sanskrit, is another name for Vishnu.

10. Chaitya

It refers to a shrine, sanctuary, temple, prayer hall, or a sacred monument. "Caitya" comes from the root of cita or ci, meaning "heaped-up."

11. Dhruv

It means 'steadfast' or 'unshakeable.' Considered a devotee of Vishnu, it refers to the pole star.

12. Daksh

The word means 'highly skilled.' It also refers to Sati's father, who was killed and then revived by Shiva.

13. Deva

Deva or Dev means a god or a divine being.

14. Debabrata

Debabrata is Bhishma's name before he vowed celibacy. It means 'one who accepts penance.'

15. Dhananjaya

Arjun was called Dhananjaya, which means 'fire' in Sanskrit.

16. Durlabha

It means 'rare,' or 'elusive.'

17. Eshwara

Primarily an epithet of Lord Shiva, Eshwara or Ishvara means supreme soul, ruler, lord, king, queen, or husband.

18. Ganapati

Joining the Sanskrit compound Gana and Pati, this name refers to 'the lord of the people' or the widely worshipped deity Lord Ganesha.

19. Gautam

Gautam is the other name of Lord Buddha, having roots in Sanskrit.

20. Hariprasad

Hariprasad refers to the one who is blessed by Lord Krishna.

21. Harikesh

Harikesh was a disciple of Mahavira.

22. Ikshvaku

It refers to the First King of The Surya dynasty.

23. Ilusha

Ilusha was the father of Kavasha Ailusha, a prominent Maharshi in the Rig Veda.

24. Indra

Lord Indra was the king of swarga (heaven) and the devas residing in swarga.

25. Jatin

The ancient Sanskrit name means 'disciplined,' 'someone with a matted lock.'

26. Jiva

This unique Sanskrit origin name means 'healthy, alive or living.'

27. Janak

Janak means pioneer, or 'father of Sita' from Ramayana.

28. Karun

This traditional Sanskrit word means 'compassion', 'mercy', 'tenderness' and 'gentleness'. The name also refers to 'Supreme Being.'

29. Kashyap

The name is of Sanskrit origin, meaning 'divine beings,' 'famous sage,' and 'wise.' The Pandavas had a friend named 'Kashyap' in the Mahabharata. The name also refers to an ancient sage who is the descendant of Marichi, who helped Ravana in kidnapping Sita.

30. Laksh

Laksh means 'goal', 'aim' or 'target.'

31. Manuh

The name refers to Lord Vishnu, who is mentioned in the Vedic Mantras or hymns. It also means 'the ruler of the earth.'

32. Manuj

Manuj means 'the son of Manu.'

33. Nahush

This ancient word of Sanskrit origin means 'neighbor or kindred' or 'fellow man.' It is another name given to Lord Krishna and Lord Vishnu as a reference to the elusive powers or maya to confound every being.

34. Nilkanth

Nilakanth is the name of Lord Shiva, which refers to the blue throat of Shiva as he had consumed the poison to save the world. Nila means 'blue,' and Kanth means 'throat.'

35. Om

Om is the preeminent Sanskrit mantra and symbol of Hinduism. This Sanskrit word means 'gift of God'.

36. Parth

Parth name means 'one who never misses the target,' or 'king.'

37. Pavan

Pavan refers to 'the god of wind.' This Sanskrit word is used to refer to Lord Hanuman.

38. Parixit/Parikshit

Parixit means 'Tested One' or 'Proven' or the son of Abhimanyu from epic Mahabharata.

39. Rakshit

The ancient Sanskrit word means 'saved and protected.'

40. Rudra

The name Rudra comes from ru, meaning 'Roar or howl.' It is a personification of terror. When Shiva begged for a name from his father, he was granted Rudra or 'howler' due to his tremendous powers as the storm god.

41. Shantnu/Shantanu

Shantnu was the father of Bheeshma and a King from the epic Mahabharata. The name means 'wholesome' in Sanskrit.

42. Sanu

The Sanskrit origin name means 'surface or top of a mountain.' The name also refers to ridge and tableland.

43. Saraswata/Saraswat

Saraswata refers to the 'husband of Saraswati.' Saraswati was the holy river mentioned in the Rig Veda.

44. Trayit

This unconventional choice of name is mentioned in the Mantra, Om Trayitrave Namah, in which we recall Lord Ganesha or Shiva. All the three Vedas taken together are called Trayit.

45. Tirth

Tirth means a 'holy place' or 'place of pilgrimage.'

46. Vishwanath

Vishwanath is an epithet of the god Shiva. Originating from Sanskrit origin, it means 'Lord of the universe.'

47. Vyas

This ancient name is of Sanskrit origin, means 'wise sage' or 'preacher.'

48. Vaman

This name means 'short dwarf' in Sanskrit. The name is given to the fifth avatar of Lord Vishnu when he takes birth as a dwarf Brahmin as per the Puranas.

49. Vedant

Vedant means 'ultimate wisdom' or 'one who is blessed with Vedic knowledge.'

50. Yagyesh

Yagyesh is the 'God of holy or sacrificial fire.'

As per the Vedic scriptures, a person's name is likely to influence his character, personality, career growth, and spirituality. The vibrations caused by frequently calling a person's name affect both the caller and the person called. If a person's name is connected to divinity, it invokes divine vibrations. Naming a child after a god or his energies brings all the auspiciousness and increases the relationship between the caller and the called person. Boy names in Vedas are not just spiritual but are filled with positive energy. Thus, these powerful names carry a special significance that will lend your child an identity and a place in the world.

100+ Vedic Names for Baby Boy in 2022 [Must Read] | Name Checks

India is truly mixed blend and rich in culturally heritage, traditional and Vedic shastra which makes the people of India so down to earth and being connected with each other.

Moreover, there is a very deep connection of Puranas, Vedas, Bhagvat and all with the Hindu religion names, as it India is the origin of Hinduism.

So, if you're also expecting a baby boy very soon in your home and wants to give him a truly meaningful vedic name that to reflect his own identity and also acquires the same significant of that name.

Then you are at the right place as here we have listed out best vedic name for baby boy which you shouldn't be missing out.

So, without making any more confusions let's directly dive in explore the vedic names for baby boy from which you should select the best one out from the box.

- Vedic names for baby boy
  - Conclusion on vedic names for baby boys

No doubt in it that choosing the best name for your baby boy that not only reflects the best characteristics of oneself but also looks truly elegant and sounds good when called isn't an easy task.

Checkout some very religious and vedic names for baby boy.

1. Aarav

The name Aarav finds its roots in the Sanskrit word "rav," meaning calm and peaceful. Paradoxically, Aarav also refers to "sound" or "thundering" in Hindi. The name can be found in the Rig Veda.

2. Aditya

Aditya, according to Hindu mythology, refers to the "Sun God." The name also signifies the sons of Aditi, the Goddess of infinity. According to the Vedas, Adityas were six or seven celestial deities. Varuna was the chief of these deities who later came to be known as Aditya.

3. Adyah

In Sanskrit, Adyah means "the first." It is also another name of "Lord Shiva."

4. Akshar

The name denotes "eternal" or "leader of Gods." Akshar also refers to a character or alphabet. According to Hindu mythology, Akshar is another name for Lord Brahma, Shiva, and Vishnu and depicts "Om"

5. Agasthya

It was the name of a sage, better known as Agasthya Muni. His writings are found in the Rig Veda and his reference is found in various Puranas, the Ramayana, and Mahabharata.

6. Aksha

It means "chariot with many horses." In Vedantic Hinduism, Aksha signifies the essence of the material world and the first element. The reference of this name is found in the Linga Purana, translating as "firmament." Aksha is also one of the 1,008 names of Lord Shiva.

7. Ambareesh

With roots in the Sanskrit scriptures, Ambareesh is an ancient word meaning "atmosphere," "sky," or "the sun" and finds mention in the Ramayana. The name also refers to Lord Vishnu, Shiva, and Ganesha.

8. Anagh

Anagh is the God Vishnu's 146th name. The Sanskrit word means "faultless or sinless."

9. Angad

In the mythological epic Ramayana, Angad was the son of Bali. It means "ornament."

10. Anshumat

In Sanskrit, Anshumat refers to one who is "brilliant" or "luminous." According to Hindu mythology, Anshumat symbolizes a mighty fighter.

11. Anubhav

Anubhav is a Hindu boy name of Sanskrit origin. The name signifies "follower of glory." It also means "lightning."

12. Anuraj

It is a popular Hindu name for a male. In Sanskrit, it means "devoted," "enlightening or illuminated," or even "attracted." Anuraj refers to a beloved child, and in the Rig Veda, the mention of the name signifies "shine and extraordinary."

13. Aparajit

Aparajit is a popular Hindu name, meaning "unsurpassed" or "undefeated." The Sanskrit name is found in the Rig Veda and means "unconquered." In the Bhagavad Puran, one of Lord Krishna's sons is named Aparajit.

14. Aranyak

Aranyaka is a sacred class of ancient Hindu literature. It refers to a "lush forest" or "one who lives in the forest."

15. Aravan

The Vedic name for a boy finds its roots in Sanskrit. The word means "hostile" or "envious," according to the Rig Veda.

16. Arjun

Arjun was one of the Pandavas in the epic Mahabharata. The main protagonist of the story also appears in other ancient Hindu scriptures like the Bhagavad Purana. Arjun was a boon from Indra Dev and son to Kunti and Pandu.

17. Arun

With Sanskrit roots, Arun means "dawn" or "the power of giving life." Reference of this name is found in the Bhagavad Puran, signifying "the red color."

18. Arya

The Sanskrit name signifies the "noble one." It refers to an honorable and great person. Arya Bhatta (476-550) was a famous Indian mathematician.

19. Atharv

It is the name of a Hindu Veda and in Sanskrit, it means "knowledge." Atharv was also the name of Brahma's eldest son, according to the Mundaka Upanishad.

20. Avyakta

The male name of Sanskrit origin signifies a person "who sees the world ahead." Avyakta is also another name for Lord Ganesha and Lord Vishnu, meaning "to unmanifest."

21. Ayush

Ayush is a Hindu name of Sanskrit origin. It means "long life" or duration of life. Ayus is found in the Rig and Atharva Veda.

22. Baban

The name of Hindu Vedic origin refers to a "conqueror."

23. Bajrang

Bajrang is another name of Lord Hanuman, the 'vanara' or monkey companion of Lord Ram in the Ramayana.

24. Balaram

This Hindu Vedic male name is common in the villages of India. Balaram was the brother of Lord Krishna.

25. Bhaarav

The Hindu name means "bowstring." Someone with this name is a source of great happiness.

26. Bharat

In the epic tale of Ramayana, Bharat was the brother of Lord Ram. The country of India is also known as Bharat in Hindi.

27. Bhavan

Bhavan is another name for Lord Krishna. It signifies the "Creator" and also refers to someone solicitous, brilliant, and charming. Bhavan also means palace.

28. Bhavin

In Kavya literature and the epic Mahabharata, Bhavin means "predestined," "imminent," and "inevitable." It means a "beautiful blessing."

29. Bheem

A character in the epic Mahabharata, Bheem is one of the Pandavas, known for his strength and might.

30. Bidur

Bidur was a wise and clever man. He was a trusted friend and confidant of Lord Krishna. His reference can be found in the Bhagavad Gita.

31. Charan

The word has Sanskrit origins and means "foot" or support. It also refers to "good behavior." In Atharva Veda, the name means "managing" or "acting." In the Hindu mythological story 'Harivansh,' Charan signifies a pillar of support.

32. Chakra

A circular weapon that Lord Vishnu bears is called the Chakra. It is a powerful Hindu name.

33. Chakrik

A variant of Chakra, the "one who holds the chakra" or "the one with a discus" is called Chakrik. According to Hindu mythology, it refers to Lord Vishnu.

34. Chanak

Chanak is the father of Chanakya, according to the Vedas. It refers to one who is a digger or a miner. In that context, it also refers to a mouse. Chanak is also a variant of 'chhana,' which is the sweet sound of bangles or anklets.

35. Chandrachur

Another name for Lord Shiva, Chandrachur, means "the moon."

36. Chaturbhuj

Someone who has four arms is called a Chaturbhuj. According to the Hindu scriptures, it is the name given to Lord Ganesha and also signifies someone with broad-shouldered and strong.

37. Chinmaye

Chinmaye means "supreme consciousness." It also means "blissful" and is another name for Lord Ganesha.

38. Chitrasen

Chitrasen was the king of Gandharvas, a tribe with energy like horses. It is a mighty Hindu boy name.

39. Daksh

The name finds its origin in the Sanskrit language. Daksh was the son of Lord Brahma and Aditi. It means "competent."

40. Darsh

Darsh comes from the word 'darshan,' meaning "sight." It signifies the moment when the moon becomes visible to the naked eye. Darsh is another name for Lord Krishna.

41. Deovrat

In the Mahabharata, Bhishma, better known as Bhishma Pitama, holds a pivotal role. Another name for Bhishma is Deovrat.

42. Devank

According to Hindu mythology, Devank means "written by God."

43. Devesh

Devesh signifies the “king of gods.” As per Hindu mythology, the king of Gods is Indra Dev, and thus, Devesh is another name for Indra.

44. Dharesh

Dharesh is a beautiful Hindu male name, which means “God of the planet earth.”

45. Dhruv

This Hindu name finds its roots in the Sanskrit language. Dhruv means “constant” or “faithful.” According to the Puranas, Dhruv was a prince, blessed with a immortal life by Lord Vishnu.

46. Dhruvah

It is increasing in popularity for Hindu baby boys. In Sanskrit, Dhruvah refers to “one who is immovable.”

47. Dhurya

A short Hindu name of Sanskrit origin, Dhurya denotes “creator.” It is one of the many names of Lord Vishnu.

48. Dhwij

In the Hindu mythological epic, the Mahabharata, Dhwij was the son of Abhimanyu.

49. Durvish

“One who cannot be affected by poison” is known as Durvish. The meaning implies another name of Lord Shiva.

50. Ekchakra

Ekchakra was the son of Rishi Kashyapa, one of the Saptarishis or seven wise sages, mentioned in the Rigveda and other religious books. He is the oldest Rishi listed in the Brihadaranyaka Upanishad.

51. Eklavya

The story of Ekalavya is always heart-wrenching. He was a disciple of Dronacharya but only learned his archery skills from a distance. When Dronacharya found out about the “student who learned archery by watching,” he asked for his thumb as gurudakshina as he feared Eklavya would be a better archer than Arjun.

52. Gannath

The Vedic name Gannath is an epithet of Lord Shiva. The lord of the ganas is known as Gannath.

53. Garg

Garg is a Vedic name that can be found in the many poems of the Mahabharata. It signifies a “bull” and is the name of a saint.

54. Garud

Garud is a falcon, “the king of birds.” According to Hindu mythology, Garud was a mythical, humanoid bird who was also the carrier of Lord Vishnu. As per the Unadi-Sutra, Garud means “devourer” as Garud was originally identified as the “all-consuming fire of the sun’s rays.”

55. Gaurang

Gaurang is a combination of “gaur” meaning fair and “ang” meaning body. Someone who is fair-complexioned can be called Gaurang. It is also another name for Shiva, Krishna, and Vishnu.

56. Gaurishankar

The peak of the Himalayas is known as Gaurishankar. It is another name for Mount Everest.

57. Geetansh

An amalgamation of two words, “geeta” and “ansh,” the Sanskrit name Geetansh refers to a part of the sacred Geeta.

58. Gitanshu

The Hindu Vedic boy’s name signifies a paragraph of the Bhagavad Gita.

59. Harikesh

Harikesh is another name for Lord Krishna, epithet of Lord Shiva, and another name for Lord Vishnu. It denotes one with yellow hair and is also one of the seven principal rays of the Sun.

60. Hameer

Hameer was an extremely rich king and also means “the red one.” This Hindu name is the name of a raga of Indian classical music.

61. Hans

Hans means “swan.” But the name also refers to purity and signifies a mountain. It is another name of Surya or supreme soul and also refers to a Brahman.

62. Hanuman

Hanuman was the son of the wind God. The monkey God was Lord Ram’s disciple and true friend who led the vanar sena. It is popular in the Hindu villages and signifies someone mighty and loyal.

63. Haran

Haran is “to destroy” and Hara means “one who destroys.” According to Hindu scriptures, Haran is another name for Lord Shiva, the destroyer of all sins and evil in the world.

64. Hari

The Hindu name Hari has multiple meanings. It signifies the sun and the moon. It means light, green and man. Hari is also another name for Brahma, Indra, Vishnu, and Shiva.

65. Haridas

According to Hindu mythological scriptures, Haridas was a servant of Lord Krishna.

66. Harshavardhan

The powerful Hindu male name refers to one who is the “creator of joy” or one who increases joy. A famous Indian emperor called Harshavardhana ruled North India from 606 to 647 CE.

67. Hemadri

Hemadri is a combination of “hem” meaning gold and “adri” meaning mountain. It refers to a mountain of gold. The name finds reference in the Hindu Vedas.

68. Hemant

The name Hemant finds mention in the Rig Veda. It signifies “early winter,” and in Sanskrit origin, it means “gold.” Hemant is also the name of the early winter season in India.

69. Herish

Herish is another name for Lord Shiva and Lord Krishna. The name denotes a person who feels he is doing as per God’s wish.

70. Homesh

In ancient times, Havans, or a fire ritual, was regularly performed according to the Vedas. The God of Havan is called Homesh.

71. Idhyah

Idhyah is an uncommon Hindu name of Sanskrit origin. It means “praiseworthy” and is another name of Lord Shiva.

72. Ijya

A “destroyer of evil enemies” is called Ijya. This short Hindu name is also a synonym to Lord Vishnu.

73. Iravan

Iravan means “ruler.” It is of Sanskrit origin and has other meanings like “king of the ocean.” In Mahabharata, the name was given to the son of the Naga princess Ulipi and the Pandava Prince Arjuna.

74. Ishan

The common Hindu name finds its roots in Sanskrit scriptures and is immensely popular. It has multiple meanings, including lord, master, wealthy, rudras, possessing light, and reigning. The eternal form of Lord Shiva is also called Ishan. The name is also synonymous with Lord Vishnu and Ganesha.

75. Jaahnav

According to the ancient Vedas, Jaahnav was a Hindu Rishi who kept Ganga on his legs.

76. Jadadhar

Jadadhar is another name for Lord Shiva. It signifies the “one having matted hair.” The name is popular in Indian villages.

77. Jatin

The ancient Hindu Sanskrit name refers to “someone with matted locks.” The word also means “disciplined.” The name Jatin has found a reference in many Hindu mythological epics. It is also one of the many names of Lord Shiva.

78. Jai

The short and popular Hindu name has Vedic roots. The name means “conqueror” or “victory.” It also refers to a conquest or the Sun. Jai is also the name of Lord Shiva.

79. Jaivardhan

Another name of Lord Shiva and Lord Vishnu, Jaivardhan, is a variant of Jai, meaning victory. The name signifies the one who is thriving and bestowing prosperity around. Jaivardhan is also the name of Lord Krishna’s son.

80. Jayaram

In the Hindu epic tale of Ramayana, the victory of Lord Ram was celebrated with chants of ‘Jayaram.’ It means the victory of Ram.

81. Jhanak

Janak or Jhanak Raj was the father of Sita. Jhanak means “creator” and also means producing or begetting. Jhanak is also the sound of melody.

82. Jigen

The short Hindu name refers to the “sharpest sword of the world.” The name is popular among Bengali, Gujarati, Kannada, Malayalam, Marathi, Oriya, and Tamil Indians.

83. Jiva

Jiva is a unique name of Sanskrit origin. It means “living or alive and healthy.”

84. Kaanha

Lord Krishna is all-prevailing in every Hindu scripture. A young Krishna is endearingly called Kaanha.

85. Kanak

The Hindu Vedic name Kanak means “golden.” In Sanskrit, the name refers to the “Indian rose.” Kanak is also one of many names for Lord Shiva.

86. Kanav

According to the Hindu Vedic scriptures, Kanav is the name of an ancient rishi.

87. Kanishk

Raja Kanishk, or Kanishka, was an ancient king. Kanishk means small. A king who follows Buddhism is known by this name.

88. Kanjan

The beautiful Hindu boy’s name is another name of the Love God Kaama. Kanjan signifies someone who is “born of water or produced from water.”

89. Kama

Kama was one of the main protagonists of the Hindu epic Mahabharata. He was the illegitimate child of Surya, the Sun God and Kunti, the mother of the Pandavas. Kama was a kind and a demigod.

90. Karun

Karun is a traditional Hindu name of Sanskrit origin, meaning “mercy” or “compassion.” It also implies gentleness or tenderness. It refers to the “supreme being.” The name is found in the Bhagavad Gita Puran and also finds mention in the Atharva and Rig Vedas.

91. Kashyap

In the Hindu mythological epic Mahabharata, the Pandavas had a friend called Kashyap. This Sanskrit origin name belongs to a famous sage, descendent of Marichi, Ravan’s aid in kidnapping Sita. Kashyap also means “wise.”

92. Keshab

Keshab is a synonym of Lord Krishna, Lord Vishnu, and Lord Venkateswara. Kesh means hair, and Keshab means long hair. According to the Puranas, Keshab was the slayer of the demon Keshi.

93. Kesavan

Kesavan is another name of Lord Venkateswara and Lord Krishna. It’s a beautiful traditional Hindu Vedic name.

94. Kostubh

This Vedic name refers to a jewel belonging to Lord Vishnu. Kostubh signifies the most precious stone.

95. Kuj

According to Hindu mythology, Kuj is the son of the earth. It is also the name of the planet Mars and an Indian name of a tree.

96. Kuldev

Kuldev is the name of the person who is god-like for a family. Kul refers to the ancestral family, and Dev is the God or head of the family.

97. Kush

In the Hindu epic tale Ramayana, Kush is one of the twin sons of Lord Ram.

98. Lakshman

According to the Ramayana, Lakshman was Ram’s devoted brother who decided to go into 14 years of exile with his elder brother.

99. Lav

Lav or Luv is the son of Lord Ram. With reference to the Ramayana, Luv and Kush were Ram’s twin boys.

100. Manuj

According to Hindu Vedic mythology, the Sanskrit name Manuj means man. It refers to the son of Manu.

101. Mohan

Mohan is another name for Lord Shiva and Lord Krishna. The Hindu Vedic name means fascinating, handsome, charming, and infatuating.

102. Mohit

Mohit is a Sanskrit name meaning “charmed” or “infatuated.”

103. Mrugaj

According to the Vedas, Mrugaj was the “son of Moon.” The powerful name means “philosopher,” “careful,” and “beautiful.”

104. Naabhij

Naabhij is another name for Lord Brahma. It finds its roots in the Sanskrit literature of Hindu Vedas.

105. Nahush

Nahush is an ancient Sanskrit word meaning “neighbor.” It is also another name of Lord Vishnu and Lord Krishna, referring to their elusive powers to amaze every being. The name finds mention in the Rig Veda as the child of Manu. Nahush is also one of the authors of Rig Veda. In the Ramayana, Nahush was the name of the son of Ambrish, who was an ancient king.

106. Nakul

Nakul was the name of one of the Pandavas in the Hindu epic Mahabharata.

107. Nilkanth

It is another name of Lord Shiva. Nilkanth is a combination of two words. Nil means the color blue, and the word Kanth means neck or throat. According to Hindu mythology, Lord Shiva churned the oceans and stored the poison in his throat. That is why he is called Nilkanth. This name is also found in the Mahabharata, referring to a blue-necked peacock. This name finds mentions in many Hindu scriptures.

108. Nimit

With roots in Sanskrit literature, Nimit means “destiny.” It also means measures determined or fixed. The name finds mention in epics like the Arthav Veda, Rig Veda, and Taittiriya-Brahman.

109. Nishit

The popular Hindu Vedic name comes from Sanskrit origins and refers to someone “born of the night.” Nishit also means “night” and finds mention in the Mahabharata, meaning “sharp or sharpened.” According to the Rig Veda, the name signifies “one who is prepared or presented.”

110. Paasy

Paasy was the name of one of the hundred Kauravas in the Hindu mythological epic, Mahabharata.

111. Paavan

The Sanskrit name from the ancient Hindu scriptures has some beautiful meanings. It means sacred, pure, pious, and incense. Paavan also refers to “fire.”

112. Padmaj

Padmaj is another name for Lord Brahma. It signifies one who is “born from the lotus flower.”

113. Pakshaj

The common Hindu name refers to the full moon. Pakshaj comes every half a month or is produced every fortnight.

114. Palash

Palash is a flowery tree or greenery. It also refers to a horse. The flowers of these trees are used to make traditional Holi colors, as mentioned in the tales of Krishna’s holi play with Radha and other gopis, in the Bhagavad Gita.

115. Panshul

The Hindu name is a synonym for Lord Shiva. It refers to a fragrance or “anointed in sandalwood.”

116. Parasara

According to ancient Hindu literature, Parasara was a powerful rishi. He was the father of Vyasa and the grandson of Vasishtha. The sage was attracted to Satyawati’s beauty when she carried him across a river.

117. Parikshit

A popular Hindu name, Parikshit was an ancient king. It denotes the “tested one” or “proven.” Parikshit was the posthumous son of Abhimanyu and the heir of the Pandavas.

118. Parth

The name can be spelt in multiple ways—Parth, Partha, or Parth. In the Mahabharata, Lord Krishna was Arjun’s friend, philosopher, and guide and fondly called him Parth. The name means “king” or “one who never misses the target.” It is also another generic name of Arjun, derived from his mother Kunti, also called Pritha.

119. Pradyumn

The son of Lord Krishna was named Pradyumn, which is a sacred Hindu name.

120. Raag

The melodious name derived from the Vedas has multiple beautiful meanings. Raag is a form of Indian classical music. It denotes music, bringing to life, love, beauty, passion, desire, and vigor. The name also refers to the Sun and the Moon.

121. Raket

Raket is a popular Hindu name derived from the ancient scriptures. It means “wise” and is another name for Lord Varun.

122. Radhav

The love story of Sri Krishna and Radha is written in the Bhagavad Gita. The beloved Radha of Lord Krishna is also called Radhav.

123. Radhey

Radhey is another name for Karna from the Mahabharata. As the story goes, Karna was born illegitimately to Kunti. She put the child in a bushel and floated him in the water, only to be rescued by Adhiratha and his wife, Radha. Thus, Karna came to be known as Radhey, or the son of Radha.

124. Rakshit

Rakshit is a Vedic name found in the Rig Veda. It is an ancient Sanskrit name meaning “protected” or “saved.”

125. Raghbir

In the Hindu epic Ramayana, Raghbir signifies the brave Lord Rama.

126. Rohin

Rohin is another name for Lord Vishnu. The Sanskrit name from the Puranas means “rising” or “iron.”

127. Rudransh

Rudransh is a combination of two words, Rudra meaning “to weep or howl” and ansh meaning “part.” The name was given to Lord Shiva for his powers as the Storm God. The name refers to Kartikeya or a part of Lord Shiva.

128. Rushabh

The name finds its roots in the Sanskrit language. Rushabh means "the most excellent." The name finds mention Ramayana and Mahabharata, where it signifies anything of excellence.

129. Sanu

Sanu is a Hindu boy name of Sanskrit origin. The name means "peak or surface of a mountain." It refers to a tableland or ridge. One can find its reference in the Rig Veda.

130. Shanay

Derived from the word 'Shani,' this Sanskrit name signifies the "Strength of Shani God."

131. Shantanu

Shantanu is a common Hindu name across the cultures of India. The Sanskrit word means "wholesome." With reference to the Hindu epic Mahabharata, Shantanu was the king of Hastinapur.

132. Shivank

Shivank combines two Sanskrit words, 'Shiva' referring to Lord Shiva and 'ank' signifying a mark or symbol. The name means "God Shiva's symbol."

133. Shivaya

Another name for Lord Shiva, the ancient Sanskrit name, which means "kind behavior."

134. Sukrit

Sukrit is a name found in the Rig and Atharva Vedas. The name means "virtuous," "pious," or "good work." It also refers to someone who is well-fated and fortunate.

135. Sugriv

Sugriv was an ally of Lord Ram. He was Bali's brother who helped Lord Ram in his expedition to Lanka to save his wife Sita from the captivity of Raavan.

136. Tirth

The name Tirth is a variation of the word 'tirth yatra.' It means pilgrimage and is commonly found in all the Hindu Vedic scriptures.

137. Vajraksha

Another name for Lord Hanuman, Vajraksha, refers to someone as "sturdy as metal." It is a smart and powerful Hindu name originating from the Sanskrit scriptures of Hinduism.

138. Vakul

The son of Goddess Vakula is Vakul. This name originates from the Hindu Puranas.

139. Vaman

The Hindu Vedic name has originated from the Puranas. Vaman means "short or dwarf" and was a name for Lord Vishnu when he took birth as a Brahmin dwarf.

140. Vibhu

Vibhu is Lord Vishnu's 163rd name. This short Hindu name signifies strength, greatness, and excellence.

141. Viraja

The name finds its origins in the Sanskrit literature of ancient Hindu Vedas and Puranas. Viraja means "to sit," but in reference to the ancient tales, it denotes "ruling or sovereign."

142. Vishnu

Vishnu is the supreme God of the Hindus. The Sanskrit word means "prevalent" and is the preserver and protector of the Universe.

143. Vishwanath

Vishwanath is another name for Lord Shiva. The name originates from the Sanskrit scripts and signifies "the Lord of the Universe."

144. Vyas

The short Hindu Vedic name is of Sanskrit origin and means "wise sage." The name finds mention in the holy Bhagavad Puran.

145. Yadav

The descendant of Yadu is Yadav. It is another name for Lord Krishna and popular in states like Haryana and Bihar. Yadav is also an Indian surname or family name.

146. Yagyesh

Yagyesh is a derivation of the word 'yagya,' meaning fire prayer. According to ancient Hindu literature, Yagyesh is the "God of the holy fire."

147. Yaj

The short Hindu Vedic name refers to "a worshipper." It refers to "sacrifice." Yaj is another name for Lord Shiva and also the name of a sage.

148. Yaju/Yajur

The Hindu scriptures include four Vedas. Yajur Veda is one of the four Vedic texts of ancient Indian literature.

149. Yanchit

This enigmatic Hindu Vedic name means "glorified."

150. Yash

Yash is a popular Hindu name originating from ancient Vedic scriptures. It means success, glory, victory, reputation, and celebrity. It is a rich and royal name. Yashvardhan was also a famous and intelligent scholar.

Conclusion on vedic names for baby boys

Finding a vedic name for your baby boy is now become very easy as here we have listed out all the best names which one might think to consider out.

So, just choose the best out from the box and as you're thinking you will get the most of the characteristics of vedic personalities in your child behaviour.

That's all for the best vedic names for baby boys, hope you have definitely like the post as much as we do sharing it with you.

Don't forget to share with the upcoming moms in your known circle too.

Thank You ☐

100 Traditional Vedic Names For Baby Boys, With Meaning (2022) II BabyChakra

- Home /
- Learn /
- 100 Traditional Vedic Names For Baby Boys, With Meaning \(2022\)

14 Sep 2022 | 5 min Read

Our country is a land of diverse cultures, religious beliefs, and heritage that blend powerful traditions, philosophy, and spirituality. Indian Vedic names for baby boys descend from these Holy scriptures and hold deep meaning and power.

In this post, we give you a list of Hindu traditional baby boy names that trace back to scriptures like ancient Puranas, Vedas, and Bhagavad Gita, and depict personalities with mystical powers and bravery. Explore the list of diverse baby boy names to find a suitable option for your little one.

List Of Hindu Names For Baby Boys, With Meaning

Vedic names for baby boys hold rich meanings and have spiritual and philosophical references. Spiritual Vedic Names For Baby Boys Meaning Of Indian Traditional Baby Boy Names Origin Aditya Sun God Vedic scriptures Aarav Calm, peaceful in Sanskrit Sound, thundering in Hindi Sanskrit Adyah The first Another name of 'Lord Shiva' Sanskrit Akshar Eternal, Leader of Gods Sanskrit Agastya Pure strength, Someone who can overcome every obstacle Puranas, Ramayana, and Mahabharata Aksha Chariot with many horses Linga Purana Ambareesh The sun, Atmosphere, Sky Sanskrit scriptures Angad Ornament Ramayana Anagh Faultless, Sinless Sanskrit Anubhav Follower of glory, Lightning Sanskrit Anshumati Brilliant, Luminous Sanskrit scriptures Aparajit Undefeated, Unsurpassed, Unconquered Bhagavad Puran Anuraj Illuminated, Devoted in Sanskrit Shine and extraordinary in Rig Veda Sanskrit Arjun White, Clear, or Silver Bhagavad Purana Arun Dawn, The power of giving life in Sanskrit The red colour in Bhagavad Purana Sanskrit scriptures Arya Noble one Sanskrit Aranyak Lush forest, One who lives in the forest Hindu literature Atharv Knowledge Sanskrit scriptures Ayush Long life Sanskrit Ayyakta One who sees the world ahead Sanskrit scriptures Bajrang Someone who is extremely powerful Another name of Lord Hanuman Ramayana Balarani The brother of Lord Krishna Hindu Vedic scriptures Babar Conqueror Hindu Vedic scriptures Bhaarav Bowstring Sanskrit Bhavan Solicitous, Charming, Brilliant Another name of Lord Krishna Sanskrit Bharat One who is engaged in search of knowledge Brother of Lord Ram Sanskrit scriptures Bhavin Predestined, Inevitable, Imminent Mahabharata Bheem Someone who is mighty and brave Mahabharata Charan Foot or support in Sanskrit Managing or acting in Atharv Veda Sanskrit scriptures Chinmaya Supreme consciousness, Blissful Another name of Lord Ganesha Sanskrit Chakra Circular weapon that Lord Vishnu bears Vedic scriptures Chakrik One who holds the chakra Vedic scriptures Chitrasen Full of energy A King of Gandharvas Sanskrit Darsh Sight Another name of Lord Krishna Sanskrit Daksh Competent Son of Lord Bmha and Aditi Sanskrit Devank Written by God Hindu Vedic scriptures Deovrat Reliable, Disciplined Another name of Lord Bhisma Mahabharata Dhruv Constant, Faithful Sanskrit Dhruj Saint, One who lives a principled life Son of Abhinay Mahabharata Dharesh God of the planet Earth Sanskrit Devesh King of Gods Another name of Lord Indra Hindu mythology Dhruvah One who is immovable Sanskrit Durvish One who cannot be affected by poison Another name of Lord Shiva Vedic scriptures Eklavya Refers to a student who learned bow while watching Hindu mythology Gannath Epithet of Lord Shiva Vedic scriptures Gaurang Someone who is of fair complexion Another name of Lord Shiva, Krishna, and Vishnu Hindu mythology Gitarshu Paragraph of the Bhagavad Gita Hindu Vedic scriptures Garud The King of birds Devourer Hindu mythology Geetansh A part of the sacred Gita Hindu Vedic scriptures Harkesh Someone who is a deep thinker Another name of Lord Krishna and Vishnu Hindu mythology Haran To destroy, The one who destroys Another name of Lord Shiva Hindu scriptures Hari Sun, Moon, Light Another name of Lord Bhrama, Vishnu, shiva, and Indra Hindu mythology Haridas Servant of Lord Krishna Hindu mythological scriptures Hanuman Someone who is mighty and loyal Son of the wind God Ramayana Harshavardhan Creator of joy Sanskrit Hemant Early winter, Gold Rig Veda Homesh God of Havan Ancient Hindu scriptures Ishan Weathy, Master, Reigning Name of the eternal form of Lord Shiva Sanskrit scriptures Ijya Destroyer of evil enemies Another name of Lord Vishnu Sanskrit scriptures Iravan Ruler, King of the ocean Sanskrit scriptures Iai Conqueror, Victory Another name of Lord Shiva Hindu Vedic scriptures Iatin Someone with matted locks Disciplined Hindu scriptures Igen Sharpest sword of the world Sanskrit Iva Alive or living and healthy Sanskrit Kanav Name of an ancient rishi Hindu Vedic scriptures Kaanha Young, Lord Krishna Hindu mythological scriptures Kanishk Small Sanskrit Karun Mercy, Compassion, Supreme being Sanskrit scriptures Keshab Someone with long hair, Slayer of demon Keshi, Another name of Lord Krishna, Vishnu, Venkateshwara Hindu mythological scriptures Kostubh Most precious stone Jewel belonging to Lord Vishnu Vedic scriptures Kush One of the twin sons of Lord Ram Ramayana Luv One of Lord Ram's twin boys Ramayana Lakshman Auspicious, Good Fortune Lord Ram's brother Ramayana Mohit Infatuated, Charmed Sanskrit Manuj Man Refers to son of Manu Hindu Vedic mythology Nakul Name of one of the Pandavas Mahabharata Nishit Night, Bom of the night, Someone who is prepared or presented Sanskrit Nirit Destiny Sanskrit literature Paavan Fire, Pure, Pious Sanskrit Palash Floeery tree, Greenery Bhagavad Gita Padmaj Born from the lotus flower, Another name of Lord Brahma Hindu mythology Paarth Philosopher, Guide Mahabharata Raadhey Another name of Kama from Mashabharata, Lord Krishna Mahabharata Rakshit Protected, Saved Rig Veda Rohin Rising, Another name of Lord Vishnu Sanskrit literature Rushabh The most excellent Sanskrit Sanu Peak or surface of a mountain Rig Veda Shantanu Wholesome, King of Hastinapur In Mahabharata Sanskrit literature Shivaya Kind behaviour, Another name of Lord Shiva Hindu mythology Sugreev One with a graceful neck, Ally of Lord Ram Ramayana Tirth A Hindu place of pilgrimage Hindu Vedic scriptures Vakul Son of Goddess Vakula Hindu Puranas Vibhu Strength, Greatness, Excellence Lord Vishnu's 163rd name Vedic scriptures Vishnu Prevalent, Preserver, Protector of the Universe, Supreme God of the Hindus Ancient Hindu Vedic scriptures Vishwanath Lord of the Universe, Another name of Lord Shiva Sanskrit scriptures Vyas Wise sage Bhagavad Puran Yadav Descendant of Yadu, Another name of Lord Krishna Sanskrit literature Yaj A worshipper, Sacrifice, Another name of Lord Shiva Hindu Vedic scriptures Yanchi Glorified Hindu Vedic scriptures Yash Success, Victory, Glory Ancient Vedic scriptures

