Move the decimal point between the first and second digits on the left. Once you reach the space between the first and second digits, stop counting. Add a decimal point here and erase the original decimal point.[2]

- The number 1,500,000.0 changes to 1.500000.
- Do the same action if the second digit is a zero. For instance, 5,000,000 becomes 5.000000.
- If the decimal point was printed on the page and you can't erase it, put a line through it so you remember it's been moved.

wikiHow

Eliminate any zeros left at the end of the number. If the number ends with 1 or more zeros, then you can ignore them. Either erase them or write the number again with the zeros omitted.[3]

- After eliminating the extra zeros, 1.500000 becomes 1.5.
- Only get rid of zeros at the end of the number. If the number is 8.100200, only get rid of the last 2 zeros so the number is 8.1002.

Write 10 raised to the power of the spaces between the decimal points. This is where the place values you counted are important. First write the number 10. Then add an exponent equal to the number of place values you counted between the decimal points.[4]

- Since there are 6 place values between the decimal points in 1.5 (1,500,000), the exponent is 106.
- In standard form, the number with an exponent is always 10, never a different number.

$$1,500000 = 1.5 \times 10^6$$

Express the equation as the number multiplied by 10 and its exponent. Place the number that you converted first. Then add a multiplication symbol, followed by 10 and the exponent. This represents a number in standard form.[5]

- For the original number, 1,500,000, the standard form is 1.5×10^6 .

Count the place values between the decimal point and the first non-zero digit. Standard form also works in the opposite direction to express very small numbers. Rather than moving right to left, move left to right. Place your pencil on the decimal point. Then count the amount of place values between the decimal and the first non-zero digit.[6]

- If the original number is 0.000325, count the place values between the decimal point and the 3. There are 4 spaces.
- There shouldn't be zeros at the end of a decimal. If there are, erase or cross them out before counting the spaces.

Move the decimal point to the right of the first non-zero digit. Once you've counted the spaces, place a decimal point after the first non-zero digit. Erase or cross out the original decimal point so you know it moved.[7]

- If the original number is 0.000325, move the decimal point and eliminate the zeros so it's 3.25.
- If there are zeros between 2 non-zero digits, keep them. For .034002, write 3.4002.

Write 10 raised to the power of the spaces between the decimal points. This step is the same as when you convert a large number to standard form. First write 10. Then take the number of spaces you counted between the 2 decimal points and write it as an exponent.[8]

- If the original number was 0.000325 and there are 4 spaces between the decimal points, write 10^4 .

$10^4 \rightarrow 10^{-4}$

make the exponent negative

Make the exponent negative. For small numbers, the exponent must be negative to indicate which direction the decimal point moved. Simply add a negative sign to the exponent to negate it.[9]

- The original exponent, 10^4 , becomes 10^{-4} .

$$0.000325 = 3.25 \times 10^{-4}$$

Express the equation as the number multiplied by 10 and the negative exponent. For the final step, put the equation together. Write the number first. Then add a multiplication sign and the 10 plus the negative exponent after. This expresses the number in standard form.[10]

- For the final result, 0.000325 becomes 3.25×10^{-4} in standard form.

Convert each individual part of the number to numerical form. Sometimes numbers are written out, making conversion to standard form tricky. In this case, convert the number to numerical form first. Large numbers have multiple sections. Write each one out in numerical form first.[11]

- If a number is spelled out as six hundred and thirty-seven thousand, four hundred ninety-two, start at the left. The first part is six hundred and thirty-seven thousand. Write this as 637,000. The second part is four hundred, so write 400. The final part is ninety-two, so write 92.
- You can do the same with small numbers as well. Very small numbers are common in measurements, like "one-thousandth of an inch." The thousands place value is 4 spaces to the right of the decimal point. So in written form, this is 0.0001.
- Another way to convert small numbers is to imagine them as fractions. "One-thousandth of an inch" is equal to $1/1,000$. Divide 1 by 1,000 and get 0.0001.

six hundred and thirty-seven thousand, four hundred ninety-two → 637,492

Add up the different parts of the number. Once you've expressed the different parts of the written number in numerical form, finding the numerical form for the entire number is easy. Set up an equation and add together all the parts of the number. The sum is the written number expressed in numerical form.[12]

- For our example, your equation is $637,000 + 400 + 92$. The result of the equation is 637,492.
- If you're in the US, remember to add a comma after every 3 digits starting from the left to keep track of the number. If you end up with 545600, for example, make it 545,600.
- Outside the US, use decimal points instead of commas. So 545,600 should be 545.600.

$$637,000 = 6.37 \times 10^5$$

Go through the process to place that number in standard form. Once you express the number in numerical form, then expressing it in standard form is much easier. Simply go through the same process as you would for any other number to find its standard form.[13]

- For 637,000, going through the process gives you 6.37×10^5 .
- Do the same with small numbers as well. If one-thousandth of an inch is 0.0001, then convert it to standard form by going through the process to write small numbers. The result is 1×10^{-4} .

To write numbers in standard form, add the numbers in expanded form together in order to get the result. For example, if the expanded number is $3,000 + 500 + 20 + 9 + 0.8 + 0.01$, you would add up all those numbers to get the standard form, which is 3,529.81. For numbers in written form, convert the words into numbers, such as by changing seven-thousand nine-hundred forty-three to 7,943. For tips on how to use British standard form and how to use standard form for complex numbers, read on!

If you are a student, you've probably thought before at some point, "Can someone else write my paper for me?" Students are generally quite busy people with all the research papers they need to write, all the tasks they need to do at their part-time jobs, and the time they still need to have to rest. This is exactly why so many students start looking for a reliable paper writing service to help them handle their assignments.

Luckily for you, there is a simple solution to all your essay writing concerns. TrustMyPaper.com is a paper writing service with professional academic writers who can create custom research papers that perfectly meet your requirements. Our writers can deliver your assignment to you in no time while maintaining high quality while crafting your college paper. Our team consists of experienced and highly-educated professionals which enables us to work so quickly.

If you are thinking, “I need someone to write my paper for me – and I need them to do it as fast as possible,” then you have come to the right place. Of course, how fast our professional writers can complete your assignment depends on a variety of factors, including the complexity of your paper, its length, topic, required research, and others.

First, you will need to consider what kind of assignment you want to get written. We work with many different kinds, including essays, research papers, case studies, and others. Whether you need a case study or a research paper written, you can be certain that we will be ready to do it for you.

Second, you will need to set the abovementioned requirements for our writers to know what you want to get in the end. The topic, the complexity of the paper, the number of sources, the length of the assignment – all of this will influence how fast our team can complete your order.

Third, you will need to indicate how much research our writer will have to do. In some cases, students will already have some materials to work with that our writers need to take into account while writing the assignment. To ensure that your research paper meets all the requirements set by your instructor, our writer will conduct extensive research and use the materials provided by you.

You might be wondering, “Will you write my paper even if it needs to be 30 thousand words long?” then the answer is “yes”. A standard page is 275 words long, so we will calculate the length in pages depending on your required word count for the research paper. That being said, you should also remember that essay writing is difficult and we will need more time for longer assignments.

Of course! At Trust My Paper, you can not only get your paper written, but you can also ask to get additional services from us such as an annotated bibliography. All our paper writers are experts at essay writing, so they know how to create an ideal bibliography for your assignment and help you get a good grade. The moment you think, “I need to pay someone to write my research paper for me,” you should go ahead and message us about your assignment.

Our team knows that academic writing requires the writer to follow specific formatting conventions. This is why we only work with professional writers who are fully acquainted with such formatting rules. You may be thinking now, “I need to pay someone to write my paper.” If that’s the case and you are worried about formatting, then you should definitely order your research paper from us.

We know that professors are particularly strict about these formatting standards, so we always make sure to implement them. A well-written research paper can receive a low grade simply because it isn’t formatted correctly. That is why we make a point to follow all the academic writing rules, including formatting ones. We have a specific set of rules that our paper writing service follows:

The first rule is structure. Every research paper we work on has an introduction, a body, and a conclusion, and each of these parts has relevant subsections within it. Professional writers at our paper writing service know how to create an attention-grabbing opening line, but they also know how to join all the parts of the essay in a coherent and logical way.

The second rule is the format. There are different formats that we work with, but you need to indicate that for your assignment so that our team knows what you need. In most cases, your professor will tell you which format you need to follow. That being said, there can still be differences between the format requirements of different universities and colleges, so you need to let us know about them.

A research paper will likely need to have page numbers and margins formatted in a specific way. Moreover, you will need to indicate the font our writer needs to use as well as the spacing, margins, and other aspects of your paper that we will need to take care of. Our paper writing service is always ready to follow any requirements you have for the assignment so that you get a good grade for it.

The third and final rule is about citations. TrustMyPaper.com writers are well-versed in all the common citation styles such as APA, MLA, Chicago, Harvard, and Turabian. Whichever citation style your school requires you to follow, our team of professional writers will definitely be able to apply it to your paper correctly.

... then you should also consider the quality of the final paper that you will receive. While we are considered a cheap paper writing service, we still realize that a high-quality paper can only be written by someone with enough expertise and experience to handle it. If you still have doubts about the quality of our research papers, we encourage you to check out samples and see for yourself.

We encourage all of our customers to provide feedback after their orders have been fulfilled.

If you have ever thought, “I want someone to write my paper for me,” then you have probably done some research into the matter. And if you have an idea about how writing services work, you probably expect professional essay writers to cost a lot. However, this is not always the case.

It's true that there are many companies that falsely claim to be able to write high-quality essays for a very low price. Unfortunately, many such writing services are trying to scam people. In most cases, low prices translate into poor quality while higher prices are associated with high quality.

But if you are someone who thought, “I need an expert to write my paper,” then you probably expect the quality of the said paper to be good. In this case, you will likely need to pay a little more than the average price to get a truly good paper. You shouldn't be making deals that look too good to be true. Instead, look for those that offer a reasonable price.

If you are looking for someone to “write my paper for cheap” and you've come across our service, then you are probably quite happy about the discovery. Trust My Paper is notorious for being affordable while maintaining good quality. Nevertheless, you should also remember that prices depend on many factors such as the deadline for the assignment, its complexity, and others.

The main goal of our company is to offer top-quality essay writing services and assist students at all levels:

- High school
- College
- University
- Graduate/Undergraduate
- Bachelor
- Master's
- MBA
- Ph.D.

Each of these levels requires specific standards to follow. The rules depend on the college of your choice, degree, and instructor. It is logical that high school essays are much easier than those assigned in college. Thus, the price might be a little bit different, but our company remains one of the cheapest among the worthy competitors.

It's not because the quality of our essay writing services suffers or we are not able to handle urgent orders. No, it's just that our essay writers realize how hard it is to be a student, so they often come up with special discounts for our registered and especially loyal customers. On top of that, we offer many free options for you to enjoy.

As a rule, students come here to purchase papers written from scratch. However, it does not mean you should buy, for instance, the entire research paper that is 20 pages long. For example, it is possible to order just several particular sections while you are working on the introduction and literature review.

Yes, certainly. Here at Same Day Essay, you can check the status of your order and the estimated time of completion in your Customer Area after the order is placed and the paper writer is assigned.

Our message board system delivers fast and effective communication between our clients and essay writers.

Once logged in, you will be able to chat with the essay writer and see how things are going with your paper.

Unfortunately, no. But given our great value and highly affordable options, along with all of the discounts and offers you can receive, you can rest assured our assistance is one of the most inexpensive and highest quality on the internet. Among the discounts available for clients are:

- A first-order discount.
- A referral program (you will pay less if you send your friends our way).
- Time-limited promotions.

Yes, you can add additional instructions from your Customer Area. The assigned essay writer will check out your new requirements and follow your updated instructions.

Yes, we can. Just choose ESL (English as a Second Language) in the Language field of the order form (under the Instructions section), and the essay writer will use simple English phrases and words when writing your work. This way, it will look as if written by a non-native speaker.

Every essay writer working in our team knows the importance of meeting a deadline. They do not work here just to earn money, but to support the next generation. You may set any deadline: a week, two, or even just one day. Additionally, we can also complete extra urgent orders like those that should be done in 1-5 hours. Our progressive, customer-oriented company tries to make changes to its schedule and services every year to improve the quality.

Students usually place their 'write my essay' requests with a good amount of caution, and who would blame them? It is pretty difficult to trust a stranger with a paper as important as an admission essay or even a dissertation on which your whole academic future is pivoted. We do not think of ourselves as the best-qualified essay writers in vain. Our service offers a variety of benefits that we hope you will find appealing to your tastes and requirements.

These include:

- Commitment to excellence: We believe writing plagiarism-free papers is not enough to meet your expectations. - Originality: We are adamant about authenticity from all essay writers, and we make sure that our essay writing service represents your views and not someone else's. Apart from automatic copy-checking scans, our editors are also gifted with experience to filter any plagiarized work and ensure that any paper is 100% original.

Simply tell us, 'write my essay for me,' and a qualified essay writer will be glad to provide you with professional same-day essay service. Our ultimate priority is your satisfaction. If you have an academic emergency, you can also count on our essay writing service!

Our essay team boasts 5,000+ professionals with advanced degrees in their areas of expertise. We have all kinds of writers in our network – former teachers and bloggers, journalists and novelists, even subject-matter experts for assignments of a more technical nature. If it's a high school level paper, every writer here will be able to cope with it. The higher the complexity level, the fewer writers we will be choosing from (which is still a lot). Our goal is to find a specialist who's successfully written papers of the requested type before and who has sufficient knowledge in the required field.

Of course! If you tick the Top Writer box in the order form, we will narrow down the search to top-rated essay writers – those who have delivered premium quality works for all their previous customers. And if you like the work of your essay writer, you will be able to request their help in the future.

Well, it depends on how much time has passed since you have placed your order.

If it was like half an hour ago, and your order was not urgent, meaning we have not found an essay writer for your task or they have not started working on it yet, then changing your instructions is not an issue. To do so, either contact our Support Team via email, Messenger or live chat and send them the correct file or log in to your Customer Area and upload it yourself.

If we have already matched you with an essay writer and they have started working, you can just ask them to review and accept a new file. In case it is too late to make changes, you will be required to pay extra.

We also need to know your time zone to understand what time it is convenient to call you or at what time we shall deliver your paper to you.

If you’re a first-time visitor, you need to complete several simple steps to purchase a paper. First, move to the Order Page. There you will find an Order Form to complete. It will include several questions. Not all of them are obligatory, but we recommend filling in as many fields as possible to let the assigned essay writer complete the best order for you:

- Subject
- Topic
- Academic level
- Number of pages
- Amount of sources to be used
- Formatting style
- Deadline

Add any attachments if you have. It is not a problem if you do not have the sources requested by your teacher – leave it all to us. Our essay writers are all great researchers as well. They will process the database of books, journals, newspapers, magazines, and research papers to find the most appropriate, relevant, and up-to-date sources for your assignment. Right, the sources should not be older than 5 years in most cases. At the same time, they should be scholarly.

Proceed with the payment once you fill out all fields. Use one of the available payment methods. That could be debit or credit cards, online payment systems, and some other ways. Anyway, as soon as we receive your payment, we will assign the most appropriate essay writer immediately. You can contact him or her all way through.

Before placing an order, you may view some of the best examples of our works. These pieces were written specifically to serve as examples. Every paper you buy here becomes your property, so we do not have a right to use this text any longer.

As soon as you make a payment, we will immediately start looking for a writer. Usually, it takes 10 to 15 minutes to match your order with an essay writer qualified in your subject and type of work. Before and during finals, though, it may take us a little longer due to overload with orders.

Give us a call if you need more information or better order right now, and you will be able to experience all the perks and benefits yourself.

Are you ready to boost your grades and have more free time tonight? Then, there is only one thing left – click on the button below or send “write my essay” request, and let us get down to writing your best essay!

We get requests now and again asking how to convert numbers to words (or convert currency) e.g. 123.45 becomes One Hundred Twenty Three Dollars and Forty Five Cents. Excel doesn't provide a function to do this so I'm going to write my own.

Microsoft does provide some VBA code which I will use as my starting point, and I have seen other examples, but these examples only allow for one currency.

My code allows you to specify what currency you use, and it takes into account regional variations of the decimal separator. Some countries use . (period or full stop) and some use , (comma).

I've created two workbooks that you can use. The first is for use with currency. The second is for ge worprA can rel sy.

$ 24,768.92

The function will take either a string (text) or a number as input and it returns a string (text).

Excel only displays a maximum of 15 digits for a number typed into a cell. Any digits after that are changed to 0.

Accounting Format
Text

This is a problem if you are working with things like credit card numbers which are typically 16 digits long. You'll need to use a nifty formula explained in this custom cell format post to solve this particular problem.

This limitation is also an issue if you are working with numbers in the 10's or 100's of trillions. Let's say you want to work out the world's gross domestic product (GDP) for the last 10 years, which will be into the 100's of trillions.

What you have to do is store the number as text. Doing this will allow you to work with numbers up to 999,999,999,999.99 which is the maximum currently supported by this function.

If you are not using a dollar as your currency as we do here in Australia, then you can change the currency to whatever you want. Note : this code doesn't distinguish between countries so you can leave the settings at dollar if you live in the USA, Canada or anywhere else using dollar.

At the top of the code there's a section where you type in the name of your currency unit and the name of your subunit. For example

Pound Sterling

1 | ' Change these as required *****
2 |   UnitName = "Pound" ' NOTE : This is singular
3 |   SubUnitName = "Pence" ' NOTE : This is plural
4 |   SubUnitSingularName = "Penny" ' NOTE : This is singular
5 |   DecimalSeparator = "."
6 |   *****

Japanese Yen

1 | ' Change these as required *****
2 |   UnitName = "Yen"
3 |   SubUnitName = "Sen"
4 |   SubUnitSingularName = "Sen"
5 |   DecimalSeparator = "."
6 |   *****

Indian Rupee

ed *****
NOTE : This is singular
' ' NOTE : This is plural
= "Paisa" ' NOTE : This is singular
*****
1 | ' Change these as require
2 |   UnitName = "Rupee"
3 |   SubUnitName = "Paisa"
4 |   SubUnitSingularName =
5 |   DecimalSeparator = "."
6 |   *****

You may have noticed that I've allowed for a special case where the name for a single subunit is different to more than one, as is the case with Pounds Sterling.

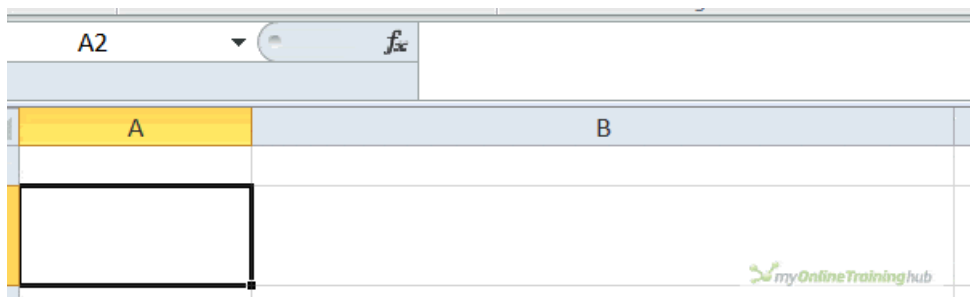

One subunit is called a penny, more than one would be referred to as pence. So £10.01 would be Ten Pounds and One Penny but £10.02 would be Ten Pounds and Two Pence. This works in a similar way for 2 cents or just 1 cent.

If you use the same term for one and more than one of your subunit then just change the code to reflect this.

If you use a , (comma) as your decimal separator then in the same area of code shown above, change the character used for the DecimalSeparator variable.

I received a translation of this code into Spanish from Pablo Baez. He said he wanted to share it with his brother in South America, so here it is - thanks Pablo.

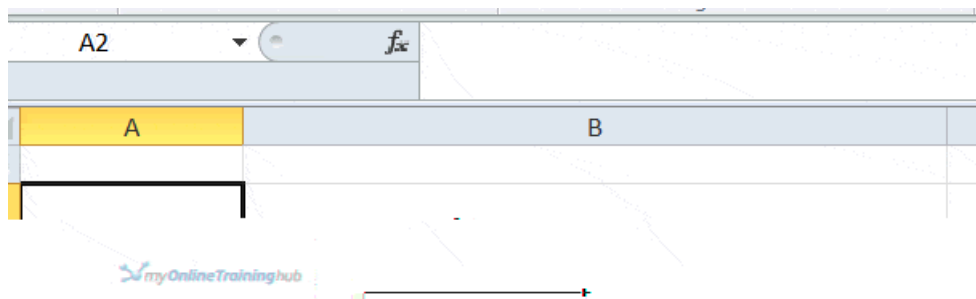

The name of the function in Spanish is NumEnPalabras()

If you have translated the code into other languages, or would like some assistance to do so, please get in touch

I also received a request from Khaled Naser Almarwa in Saudi Arabia, asking if the code could be altered to output only whole numbers. Yes it can and you can get this new code here.

This function is called NumToWholeWords()

Chastine asked if the output could be of the form :

One Thousand Two Hundred Dollars and 50/100 only

Yes it can and the new function for this is called NumToWordsFrac()
