Capricorn Sun Libra Moon – Rising Signs, Compatibility, Man, Woman – Astro Majesty

The horoscope can describe many situations to you and reveal the secrets of your sign, which the majority of us do. And while some signs of the Zodiac seem fearless, deep down, they are gentle and sensitive people, but they hide it from others, and precisely this is related to our Moon position, and it is something that not many of us know.

There are many other things that we do know about them, and when we learn where our Moon is positioned, in what sign, we can find the answers to all of this.

Today we are looking into the lives of Capricorns that have Moon set in Libra Zodiac sign – this is one very interesting combination.

General Meaning

In this luminaire combination, where Sun is in Capricorn and the Moon in Libra, we can see many inner moods that are not easy to survive for the person who has this combination. But, this does not mean that there are not any nice things along the way.

Capricorns born with the Moon in Libra are true artistic souls whose greatest fulfillment is to be surrounded by beautiful and elegant things, but they are not losing the practical vibe to things. They will not overspend their money and will have nice things that are also practical.

These people are very measured and calm, and some may even see them as cold.

Also, these people are relaxed only in the circle of well-known faces, and their circle of friends is truly small.

People who have this luminary are in love by nature because they have an inexplicable need to be constantly in some kind of emotional relationship.

Love is a big part of their life, unlike some other Capricorns. It is very depressing for them to be alone for a long time or not to think about anyone, but the circle of their loved ones is never wide.

People with the Sun in Capricorn and the Moon in Libra are also associated with a love of quality and expensive things, art and design -but they will work so hard to have them, they will not do it if they do not have any money to afford it.

Very often, and this is the case even with these Capricorns, this position of the Moon gives talent for drawing, design, architecture, music, and the like. They may just enjoy it as a hobby, but still, the talent is there.

The great flaw of these people is that they constantly strive for perfection that they will never reach, and on that path, they are making so many mistakes, especially in emotional life. They find it difficult to adapt and are not ready to lower their standards – they wait so long until they get married, and the “right one” never comes.

Sometimes d@prie they get marrie)y other people.

To really achieve something, these human beings need a partnership, as we have previously said, and it is not uncommon for them to have business with family members. They always try to balance things out mentally and emotionally, but emotional balancing can be very, very hard.

However, when they really want something, they are determined and push the matter to the end – the Sun in Capricorn awakes and gives its best.

These people truly know how to win the game if they want to do it, to show skill, and make some concessions to make it easier to impose their inner desires.

These people instinctively know how to present themselves in the best light and, although they are ambitious, they are not ready to do cross their limits to achieve something. There is always has to be a boundary.

To many, these people may look stiffer than they really are, all due to the fact that they find it difficult to show their most tender feelings, and they are more focused on traditional style and conservative values than anything else.

Because of all of this, others might think that people who have the Sun in Capricorn and the Moon in Libra are seen as difficult and awkward people, especially since they are more than willing to pretend to be insensitive and blazed.

But there is not a grain of truth in that. They are very sentimental and are pressed by a strong sense of duty, which sometimes goes as far as to sacrifice.

Capricorn Sun Libra Moon – Man

This is the man who tries to satisfy his personal ambitions, who is even ready to focus on only one goal in order to be sure that he will achieve it, and who little by little discovers that he is losing strength.

In a bad relationship with himself, when other astrological aspects are there, this man knows that he has to continue his efforts like a robot, with almost mechanical determination, and other things attract him, other areas become his interest.

In time, this man gradually discovers that life is too sad if a person has to constantly fight against himself. Maybe the true advice is to stay true to himself but to stop resisting his true nature.

However, this is a friendly being who cannot constantly judge himself, lead a lonely fight. That is why the Sun in Capricorn and the Moon in Libra sometimes do not know where he is anymore, and he is not sure of his deep inclinations, and yet he sticks to some of his beliefs and principles.

In work, this may come as good news, but in reality, in love life, in connection with others, this man is seen as a prisoner of the strict principles acquired during upbringing, and he can hardly attain the adaptable nature which he feels is possible and needed.

When he realizes what he needs, then he finds that need and understands that this is the need for harmony. His aesthetic tastes, his sense of practicality are in constant conflict with his clear and abstract spirit.

This may be a problem for some, both others can make this in their favor and make the best out of their creative energy.

The Moon in Libra, even in combination with this Sun in Capricorn, strives for togetherness; without a partner, it is weak. He keeps the partnership to the last, and even when he does not admit it, he needs a lover to make him complete.

But he does not allow himself to let go, and this is such a major problem and not a bit of a pleasant experience.

Separations are the hardest to fall to this man even if he does not admit it, and he will never will. The fact is that he needs to learn everything to preserve harmony and maintain the relationship.

In the life of this man also, The Moon in Libra is happy only when he finds its other half and establishes a community.

A man with this position of the Moon likes to be liked by a large number of people if not everyone can.

Moderate, kind with true gentlemanly manners, someone who gives an expression that he will take care of his wife and family. He will bring you a chair, open the car door, he has amazing manners, and here education and moderation are above all, even when the luxury comes in some form or shape.

Even after a breakup, he tries to maintain a correct relationship with his partner. To him, the image in public is primary, and he does not like when others speak at him, and the ultimate no-no is when others try to mess in his emotional life. He would not allow it.

Capricorn Sun Libra Moon – Woman

At the same time, the Moon in Libra is so strong, and it will influence the development of a person capable of using her powers wisely and productively.

The character of this lady in love life can be a realm of uncontrolled feelings, and her love life can be a mess.

From this luminary, the connection is born the master of her own mental states and a huge practical significance which is not satisfied only by the realization of exclusively individual desires but also feels the necessity of doing for others.

This is what will make this woman an amazing mother, and a wonderful friend, and a wife. You will not make a mistake by choosing this woman to become your partner. She is known for asking a lot from others and from herself. This lady tries to impose the virtue of moderation around herself and would like to think and act in a golden environment, with a measure that draws its strength from natural authority. Since life is everything but this, she can have a problem in achieving such tendencies.

She would change all day and choose the “ideal” combination, and she is ready to wait for it, not realizing that it may not ever come and that she will end up alone – can she live with it.

Something always sticks out too much, so this lay should try all the variants in order to find the right one where everything fits.

What makes them wiser is their ability to contemplate and their boldness. They should allow their Capricorn to put their ideas into practice.

When it comes to love, these natives are romantic and put their partner on a pedestal. They will work hard to make their relationship beautiful and interesting. But they need to look beyond physicality and to search for someone who's as spiritual as them.

They need someone aware of their self-sacrificing methods and who appreciates all this. If they will ever feel unloved, these people will change their attitude completely.

They are romantics who want to be shown affection. It's not like they want flowers every day or expensive gifts, but a kiss and a sincere "I love you" will keep them happy.

There are very few people who can resist the charms of the romantic man with the Sun in Capricorn and the Moon in Libra.

He will never be too domestic, but his devotion to his family can't be equaled by people in other signs. And he will show it through grand gestures, aside from sticking to what he has promised.

He wants the good life and to spend all his money on expensive things. This guy is rather artistic and talented than determined and practical. It's possible he'll get fame and recognition from a young age.

But he's prone to becoming dependent of alcohol and illegal substances. If he will lead a very active life early on, he might risk ending up with no more life goals by the time he is thirty. And he will start to self-destruct.

Not necessarily good-looking, it's his appeal that makes him drive the ladies crazy. Many will be at his feet. When paying a compliment, he will be sincere and women will like it.

There will probably be many movies and books made about the way he loves. And he won't shy away from openly expressing his love as soon as he will meet someone interesting.

He doesn't care if he's with another person when he suddenly falls in love. He will simply break-up and pursue the new woman. As a husband, he will strive to provide only what's best for his wife.

The Capricorn Sun Libra Moon woman

This woman is very similar to her male counterpart. She is bold and knows what she wants or how to get it. She will have strained relationships with all the men in her life, from her father to her husband.

Her guy should be strong, a good provider and someone who can keep a secret. She needs to have a secure and cheerful romantic relationship as an adult.

When it comes to her needs, this lady wants to seem a fighter and not a beggar. All the rejections she has had to deal with will be in her heart forever. That's why she may feel that she's shouldn't be loved.

Some men will be scared by the way she indulges in life's most refined pleasures. This is the type of lady who'll suffer for a guy and at the same time will dine with another pretender.

The Moon in Libra influences her to have a flawed logic, but at least she has the charm this combination brings.

If given what she wants, the Capricorn Sun Libra Moon woman will immediately cooperate. And as soon as she lets her guard down, she becomes the sweetest and most adorable creature in the world.

In their heart, these natives are loners who enjoy thinking only of themselves. If they'll have an unemotional partner like themselves, they will be very reliable and devoted.

This man is highly motivated and determined. He puts his needs on top of anyone else's. If he'll have to make some compromises to attain success, he won't hesitate to make them. It will be tough for him, but he will.

The Libra Sun Capricorn Moon doesn't need to be told about feelings, he prefers to guess. As one of the least charming Libras, he's more like the distant Capricorn.

If born around midday, he'll be more successful and competitive at home. As a father, he will have conflicts with his children.

But he'll invest a lot of time and efforts in being the best. His life will have many accomplishments. But he will use a lot of his energy to make good money and advance at work.

When it comes to his love life, he wants a woman who excels at everything. That's why he likes ladies who work hard, are attractive and don't mind being homemakers.

It's possible he'll treat everything like a business. At least he will charm everyone and become really powerful.

A traditionalist and a romantic, he'll be loyal and protect his lover from the harshness of the world. He won't be late because he's been out with boys. It would be indecent for him to do this.

While he doesn't have any plans to act in a certain way with his lover, he will manage to be satisfactory because he works hard and is caring. But he wants to be loved and appreciated. This Libra man needs a woman who has the same values as him.

The Libra Sun Capricorn Moon woman

This lady is so self-centered that others consider her selfish. She's not as charming as other Libras, but she can still get men. And she'll be liked by other ladies too because she's fun, intelligent and responsible.

Many will think of the Libra Sun Capricorn Moon woman as a snob because she's mannered. If she needs to use someone in order to climb the social ladder, she won't hesitate to do it.

The obstacles she'll need to overcome in life will be many and tough. But she'll be victorious. This is the type of woman who'll support her husband morally and financially if he wants to go to school and change his career.

But she won't accept him to fail. As a matter of fact, failure makes her fall out of love. If she was born between 4 and 5 am, her Moon will make her strong enough to handle all the responsibilities of a marriage. However, her Sun won't allow for this to happen as much as she would allow.

She probably won't have too many children, but she will definitely love and care for the ones that she has. It's also possible she'll want to study for her PhD at some point. And her man will have to accept this or she'll leave.

And problems with the next man will emerge too. At least she falls out of love very fast. A little bit vicious and with many relationships in her past, this lady will support other girls who act the way she does. This woman doesn't like being told that she's wrong.
